REIMBURSEMENTS ASKED.

RINDERPEST.

The rinderpest is increasing in France.

GERMAN EVACUATION.

PARIS, July 28.—The rumor that Bismarck consented to the evacuation of the environs of Paris on or before the 31st of August is pronounced to be without foundation. The German troops will not be withdrawn from their present positions in the vicinity of Paris till 1,500,000,000 francs of indemnity are paid, and it will be impossible for the French Government to pay that amount as early as the 31st ultimo.

COALITION.

The next sitting of the Assembly will take place Monday next. A meeting of the delegates of the left and extreme left has been held to day to bring about a coalition of the two wings of the Liberal party in Assembly, but without effect. Three hundred delegates have pledged themselves to vote for a prolongation of Thiers' power as Chief Executive. The Salute, which supports the President, declares that the sole ambition of Theirs is to be regarded hereafter as the Washington of France.

RUSSIA AND FRANCE.

The Avenir says the Empress of the French has written a letter to the Czar of Russia urging him to continue to maintain friendly relations with the French.

COMMODORE ASHBURY.

Ashbury's official challenge for the Queen's cup will shortly be forwarded to the New York Yacht Club. He writes to the London papers that he has certificates making his vessel the representative of twelve English clubs, and in correcting some mis statements which have appeared here, he says: According to his understanding, the yacht winning a majority of the races will take the cup.

THE "TIMES" AND HOFFMAN.

LONDON, July 28.—The Times to-day, in an editorial upon the New York riots, full particulars of which reached here by the American mails, says, in reference to the procession of Orangemen, that Governor Hoffman incurred terrible responsibility in permitting it to take place and promising it protection. The State, says the Times, ought to interfere with parades of both Orangemen and Ribbonmen. It should not encourage antagonism, and should bring all persons to recognize its rule, dealing equally with the national feelings and prejudices of all.

FALSE.

LONDON, July 28.—The Echo, gives an authorative denial to the truth of what it terms the romantic tissue of exaggeration published by the Times, respecting M. Devienne, President of the Paris Court of Cassation and flatly contradicts the report that the Empress Eugenie ever contemplated a divorce from the Emperor.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1871.

EARTHQUAKE IN THE PHILLIPINE ISLANDS.

A special London dispatch says: The earthquake in the Phillipine Islands on May 1st affected in a terrible manner the small island of Camiguin, five miles from Misanus. For some months previously, especially in March, there was a succession of violent shocks, which opened extensive crevices in the earth. Finally, on May 1st, the level plain near the village of Catarwin began gradually to subside, until the tops of houses became level with the surface of the earth. This remarkable phenomenon attracted a large number of people, when suddenly some terrific shocks were felt, and before the thundering vibrations had died away the whole level plane fell in, engulphing one hundred and fifty persons. The plane became the crater of a volcano 1,500 feet wide, and from it smoke, ashes and stones were thrown into the air. A pause till dark succeeded, when there was another explosion, and a rain of fire followed. The woods became ignited, and men and cattle were flying before the flames. The spectacle was frightful in the extreme. The volcano continues to eject stones and earth. Every inhabitant has left the island, which formerly contained a population of twenty-six thousand. Cameguin produced one-tenth of the whole Manilla hemp grown.

THE POPE AND THE CHURCH.

A special from Rome says: In an important speech made by the Pope recently in the Academy, to a deputation bringing Peter's pence, he said: The Church invites her children to defend her against ignorance and malice. An infallibility does not repose power to depose sovereigns. Popes, in former times, deposed and dispossessed sovereigns, not because of the infallibility of the Popes, which only touches the matters of doctrine, but because by the authority then recognized in Popes, the disposition or dispossession was accepted as public law. Christian nations also accepted the Pope in those days as the Supreme Judge. Confounding the present with the past in this regard, is done in bad faith, or with a desire to influence the States against the Church. Comments on the decisions of the Council he regarded as superfluous, the texts of those decisions being sufficiently clear.

BASE BALL.

The Athletics, of Philadelphia, and the Eckfords, of Brooklyn, played their third of the series of games yesterday. The attendance was not very large. Both clubs had strong nines, though the Eckfords were minus their first baseman. The game opened favorably for a close contest, neither side scoring in the first three innings. In the fourth the Athletics scored one by fielding errors, and the Eckfords three by good batting. By sharp fielding the Eckfords managed to prevent the Athletics from increasing their score more than they did themselves, and the finale was the success of the Eckfords by six to four. Umpire, R. M Lush, of the Unions. The next game will be played in Philadelphia. Score: Athlotic—0 0 0 1 0 0 1 2 0—4. Eckfords—0 0 0 3 0 0 1 2 0—6.

CIGAR MAKERS.

The Agent of the Havana Association of Cigar Manufacturers, representing sixty millions capital, is now in this city procuring evidence against domestic manufacturers who offer and sell their own goods as imported brands. Some of the guilty parties have been discovered and instructions will be sought from the United States Court compelling them to leave the fraudulent business unless they do so voluntarily. The penalty for omitting to stamp each box of cigars with the name of the manufacturer is fifty dollars in each case. It is said that half the cigars sold as genuine Havanas, are manufactured in this city, and that parties suspected will resist interference with their business.

THE "TIMES."

A force of about seventy five government employees, comprising clerks from the Custom House, Postoffice, United States District Attorneys' and Marshalls offices, are engaged to-day at the Times newspaper office addressing wrappers of to-morrow's issue of that journal, which is announced to contain a resume of the publications made in the Times touching financial and other transactions of the city officials. The postoffice carriers it is said will leave copies of the edition at the city residences.

CANADIAN FILLIBUSTERS.

A special to the Montreal Dispatch says the fillibusters are organizing in Canada much more extensively than was at first believed. The Dominion Secret Service officials have discovered that a force of eighty men has been enrolled in Quebec, and that there is money in abundance among the movers of the expedition. In Quebec they have discovered the name of the agent in Montreal, which hitherto has been a mystery, but for sufficient reasons the name is withheld. Men are moving off by twos and threes, it is reported, and will rendezvous at Newport, Maine. A letter has been seen from the Junta urging haste, and wanting men forwarded within fifteen days.

BOSTON RIBBONMEN.

A Boston correspondent states that during the progress of the New York riots there were eight hundred Ribbonmen in that city ready to join the rioters in New York if called upon, or if the Hibernians had been successful in their attack upon the Orangemen. They had spies at the different newspaper offices and at the telegraph office to gather the latest information, and if the rioters had secured any degree of success, they would have gone forward and reinforced them at once. The mob was chiefly composed of employes in the city gas houses, and comprised many leaders in the Boston draft riots.

TAXATION RESISTED.

The Times this morning states it has reason to believe that a large number of the most influential citizens in the community have agreed to call a public meeting and to resist the payment of any further taxation until the present rulers of the city have been forced to render an account of their stewardship. Over one thousand names, including those of many eminent merchants and bankers have already been subscribed.

MARINE DISASTER.

The schooner reported by the schooner Burdett Hart, as off Barnegat on the 25th inst. capsized, was the schooner Isaac Henckly, Capt. John Randolph from James River. Virginia, with a cargo of pine wood for this port. The schooner Roxiana, of this port, was in company with her on Monday, 24th. As no word has been received from her since, it is supposed the captain and crew are lost.

THE ITALIANS.

The Italian parade and celebration of National Unity will occur on August 25th, and it is expected several thousands will participate in the procession which will include the Corps Bersaglieri and a corps of 200 Italian boys, dresed as soldiers and carring the banner of ancient Roman Unity.

MADE BARONET.

Hugh Allan, President of the Montreal Ocean Steamship Company, better known as Allan's line, has been creasted Baronet under the title of Sir Hugh Allan of Reveas Craig, in consideration of his great services in promoting the welfare of the country by means of commercial communication.

INFECTED ROBES.

There is a sensation story out to the effect that 150,000 buffalo robes are on their way to this city from Buenos Ayres and Montevedio, where the yellow fever has been raging.

NO INFORMATION.

Secretary Fish denies that information of any character is at hand announcing the appointment of Jules Ferry as Minister to the United States.

CONCILIATION.

The Italian Goverment is said to have requested Von Beust, of Austria, to act as an intermediary to propose conciliation to the Vatican.

CITY ACCOUNTS.

The Mayor and Controller say the city accounts, which will make a volume of 800 pages, will probably be published to-morrow.

REGATTA.

The regatta of the Bayonne Yacht Club yesterday in the lower harbor was won by the Sophia on time allowance.

CRICKET MATCH.

The cricket match at Hoboken ended with a victory for the Boston club over the St. George, of New York.

NEW COTTON.

The first bale of the new crop of Texas cotton was sold at auction at noon to-day in the Exchange at 43c.

KENTUCKY CLAIMS.

A special from Washington says Secretary Boutwell has decided not to allow the Kentucky war claim to be paid.

PEACHES.

A thousand baskets of peaches arrived in this city from Delaware.

ARRIVED.

Arrived, the steamer Donau, from Bremen.

THE STATE.

THE Logan House at Altoona is being enlarged by the addition of a new four story wing.

SEVERAL cases of small-pox have appeared in North Sewickley township, Beaver county. Thus far none have proved fatal.

A NEW Episcopal church was opened in West Brownsville last Sunday. Dr. D. C. Page preached both morning and evening to large congregations.

THERE are about six hundred strangers at Bedford Springs now, in the various hotels, and the Inquirer reckons that there are at least four hundred besides, visiting in private families

IN a few weeks the hotel which the Hon. Tariff Andy Stewart is building at Ohio Pile Falls will be finished and then one of the most picturesque spots in the State will be accessible for tourists.

THE many friends of the Hon. D. J. Morrell, throughout the country, says the Johnstown Tribune, will be rejoiced to learn that he is again able to be on his feet, and that there is but little doubt now but that he will be again restored to complete health.

WILLIAM MARTIN, an old and respected citizen of Perry township, Fayette county, whilst mowing on Thursday last was thrown from the machine and his left hand cut so badly near the joint of the wrist that it was necessary to amputate it above the wrist joint.

THE New Castle Journal says: On Saturday night last, Mr. Thos. Gillespie of Union tp., was taken suddenly ill when starting up stairs to bed, and died on Sunday morning, it is supposed from heart disease. Mr. G. was one of the early settlers of this neighborhood, and was highly respected.

ON July 20th, Stephen Evans, an employee on the line of the A. V. Railway, was buried alive near Fosser Station. He was engaged in making an excavation in the hill, and a large body of earth suddenly fell in upon him, burying him completely. When the earth was removed from his body life was extinct. Justice Ellis, of this city, held an inquest.

ON TUESDAY the main portion of the Dick iron works in Meadville was destroyed by fire. The foundry was but slightly damaged, and the pattern shop was uninjured. The loss was about $20,000, on which was an insurance of $10,000. The iron works are to be rebuilt at once, of brick and iron, and it is said will be running again in sixty days. In the meantime forty persons are thrown out of employment.

THE Beaver Radical says: They are having a little excitement over in Raccoon township, about a monster black snake that has been seen on the farm of Andrew Gamble. It is said to be about twelve or fifteen feet in length and thick in proportion. This is the third year it has made its appearance in Mr. Gamble's orchard. We are informed that the citizens of that neighborhood intend having a grand hunt, and propose going for his snakeship with dogs and shot-guns.

THE Altoona Sun says: The contract for laying the pipes of the new water works from Kittaning Point to the city, 5½ miles, has been awarded to Mr. Wm. Smith of the National Foundry and Pipe Works of Pittsburgh, on highly favorable terms. Mr. Smith is a gentleman full of energy, and understands his business thoroughly, and his establishment is perhaps the largest pipe works in the country. The pipes are being cast now, and he expects to commence work on the ground immediately after the 8th of August, or the letting of the digging of the trenches, proposals for which are invited in another column. Mr. Smith is confident he can complete the contract by the first of January, after which our citizens will not run the streets with dirty faces for want of water to clean them.

OHIO.

TRUMBULL and Mahoning county Republicans have nominated L. C. Jones, Esq., of Warren, for State Senator.

AT the balloon ascension in connection with Grady's Circus, at Galion, on Monday, one of the men holding the balloon did not let go soon enough, and was carried up with the æronaut. After going up about thirty or forty feet he realized his situation, and dropped down, spraining one of his legs and otherwise injuring himself.

THE prohibitionists of Trumbull county have called a convention at Baconsburg, for the 11th of August, to nominate a ticket to be supported by the temperance men of that county. The prohibitionists of Mahoning county are requested to send one or more delegates to nominate a candidate for State Senator from that district; and the prohibitionists of Portage and Mahoning counties are requested to send delegates to nominate a candidate for Judge for the second snb-division of the 9th judicial district.

THE Cuyahoga Falls Reporter relates that shortly after six o'clock on Thursday evening last, two employes of the Excelsior Works, in Akron, were experimenting with a loaded revolver, when one of them, in illustration of what he would do if waylaid and ordered to stand and deliver, suddenly extended his arm toward the other, and by the movement discharged his weapon (which he had held within his coat sleeve) directly at the head of his companion. The ball entered the forehead, producing instant death.

THE Belmost Chronicle says: We are frequently asked what are the political prospects of the county for the coming election. We answer, better for a Republican victory than for the last three years. We have good reason to believe that without the gain of a single vote over our real strength, we will carry the county by a respectable majority. Local taxation, the dissolute and extravagant conduct of our present officers, the large unnecessary expense to which we have been subjected by reason of official incapacity, have not been lost in making a forcible argument in favor of a change.

THE Ashtabul Sentinel says: A curious circumstance is related to us by a friend. In the summer of 186—, a railroad was projected through the village of —— in Ohio. At the time the work was begun there was every prospect of a speedy completion of the road. Shortly after the work was begun there occurred, as is often the case, a hitch. Work was suspended. Two parties arose; one said the road would be built, the other that it would not. One Mr. L——, a merchant, doing a good business, who had been born and who would likely die in the place, was one of the skeptical ones. He did not believe it ever would be completed. In conversation with a neighbor one day, he said he did not believe the road would be built that he was so sure it would not be built, that all he could ask for was that he might live until the cars came into the place, then he would be willing to die. Time passed on, a new connection with one of the great thoroughfares was demanded. The old partially finished road passed out of the original hands. Workmen were put upon it, and in less than a year the track was down, and the village turned out to see the first train come in. A large crowd gathered upon the platform of the depot, which was only a temporary one. The two friends who had held the former conversation, were standing side by side when the friend said to L——, "Well, are you ready to die? There comes the train." L—— turned slightly pale and said, "No I am not quite, I hope that foolish remark will not be counted against me." Just then the train rushed up. The crowd pressed forward. The platform gave way. L—— was thrown on the track, the engine passed over him, and amid the shrieks of the women and exclamations of the men, train was stopped and L—— crawled out from behind not injured in the least.

Distilleries Seized.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

WASHINGNTO, July 28 1871.

DISTILLERS SEIZED.

The number of distilleries coming into the possession of the Government by purchase in cases where the property has been distained for non-paymens of taxes is very large. The Internal Revenue Bureau, however, refuses to give any information respecting the property, and is extremely reticent concerning the exact number of distilleries at present in possession of the United States. It is understood that a party of speculators are negociating with the Bureau for the purpose of getting possession of a portion of this property; therefore, information respecting the same is denied outside parties.

THE WEATHER.

No important change has been reported from the Rocky Mountains and Pacific stations. The high pressure on Lake Superior has extended southward to Kentucky, and eastward to Lake Huron. The low pressure that was north of Lake Ontario has gradually disappeared; that which existed on the western gulf has probably moved northward that which was west of Illinois still continues. North-easterly winds have prevailed from Michigan to Lake Superior and to the Missouri river but now are changing to the southwest. The weather has remained without material change in the south Atlantic States. Rain has fallen on the immediate Gulf coast. Threatening and cloudy weather has prevailed during the day from New York to Tennessee and thence to Iowa.

Probabilities.—Threatening and rainy weather will probably extend to-night eastward to Michigan and Eastern Tennessee The same is probable for Saturday in the interior of Southern and Gulf States and pleasant weather for New England.

POSTAL.

Postmaster General Cresswell has returned from Long Branch, where he went to obtain the signature of the President to a treaty for the interchange of money orders between the United States and United Kingdom of Great Britain. Also the postal convention between the United States and the Argentine Confederation. The latter treaty established a direct exchange between the United States and Argentine Republic by means of lines of steamships plying between New York and Rio Janeiro, and between the latter point and Buenos Ayres. The rate of postage by this convention which takes effect on a day to be designated by the respective postal departments of the two countries is on a single letter of half an ounce or under, fifteen cents.

KU KLUX.

The Ku Klux Committee to-day examined H. W. Guion, a leading lawyer of Charlotte. North Carolina, who testified to the past as well as the present condition of that State, saying among other things that the people had taken the law in their own hands only in cases where criminals had been pardoned and public protection demanded such action against outrages only. One more witness is here, Giles Leach, North Carolina, who will testify to Robinson county outrages. Eight or ten are on their way here from North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, and Mississippi respectively.

STAMPS.

The number of adhesive stamps issued by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for the year ending June 30, 1871, was 411,663,888, representing a value of $150,190,741 as follows: Documentary stamps, 106,786,432; value, $10,820,066; proprietary stamps for matches, patent medicines, &c., 304,877,456; value, $4,199,007. Results compared with the previous year show a decrease in the number of documentary stamps issued as 58,011,288, and money decrease on the same $2,096,100. Increase in proprietary stamps 7,184,870; value in money increase $24,047.

KENTUCKY CLAIMS.

General Hewitt, Quartermaster General of Kentucky, will file a brief to-morrow, in order to meet the point raised by the Secretary of the Treasury, namely, as to whether troops actually employed in the United States service, and will ask an immediate decision on the Kentucky war claim to which the brief has reference.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

The Secretary of the interior to-day nominated Robert Lee, Zanesville, Ohio; Geo. Outten, San Francisco; and W Wilson, Minnesota; Commissioners on the part of the government to examine the section of twenty miles lately completed on the Southern Pacific Railroad of California.

THE NEW LOAN.

The receipts at the Treasury of subscriptions to the new loan are generally of small figures, the average being below $5,000 to-day. No official communications have been received from Judge Richardson for several weeks on the subject of the loan.

NOT EXEMPT.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that officers of the, Territorial Government are not entitled to exemptions from internal tax as are officers of the State Governments under a decision of the Supreme Court in the case Buffington vs Day.

PHOTOGRAPHS.

Secretary Boutwell has received from Consul Kriessman at Berlin, imperial Photographs of the celebrities of that country who took part in the late war.

CONTRACT.

The contract for the free stone for the Government buildings at Omaha, has been awarded to J. H. Muer, of Cincinnati.

CABINET.

All the members of the Cabinet are now here except Robeson, who is expected to-morrow.

LITTLE ROCK.

Returned.

LITTLE ROCK, July 28—Gen. Catterson and Col. Whipple, the former late Marshall and the latter United States District Attorney of the Eastern District of Arkansas, have just returned from Washington where he has been to lay before the President all the facts connected with the indictment against Senator Clayton and his friends for violation of the enforcement act and ask to be reinstated. It is understood the President refused to do anything but on the other hand gave out that he would place the Federal patronage of this State in the hands of Clayton. Catterson and Whipple were removed because of the Clayton indictment although the proof of fraud was positive against him and his confederates. At a meeting of colored people speeches were made by prominent parties in opposition to Clayton faction. They are organizing for a municipal election this fall

CANADA.

Schooner Seized.

QUEBEC, July 28.—The American schooner Samuel Gilbert of Gloucester has been seized on the north shore of the St. Lawrence near Paraquiet Island by the Dominion cruiser La Canadienne for a violation of the law in trying to load with fresh fish. She was taken into Gaspe and is now on her way to Quebec for adjudication. The master admits the violation of our laws, but says he thought he had a right to fish since the treaty, in Canadian waters.

LOUISVILLE.

Change of Gauge.

LOUISVILLE, July 28.—The proposed change in the gauge of the Louisville and Cincinnati Short Line Railroad, which was to have been made on Sunday, the 30th instant, has been postponed until Sunday, August 13th. Everything along the line is prepared, and ready for the change, but the narrow gauge rolling stock could not be got from the east in time. The road will, when the change is made, conform to the gauge of its northern connection, making a through line from Louisville to the Eastern cities without a change of cars for freight or passengers. The change will be made over the entire line—one hundred and eight miles—in one day, the company employing four hundred and fifty men for that purpose. Only one rail will be moved, except on bridges or trestle-work, where both will be moved. The change to be made is from five feet to four feet nine inches.

SENATOR MORTON.

A large audience assembled to-night at Weissinger Hall to hear Senator Morton. He sat during the entire speech. The Senator commenced by referring to the changes which had taken place in Kentucky since he was last here and proceeded to compare Kentucky with Indiana, declaring the former far behind the latter owing to the incubus of slavery. He characterized the new departure as a sham intended to lift the Democracy into power so they could do away with the new amendments. He claimed if States' rights in the sense of State soveriegnty were right, then rebellion was right. He criticized the use of alleged sectional school books and restrictions upon the blacks in the public school laws in Kentucky, arguing that the blacks should be put on the same footing as the whites, and that the idea of the inferiority of the black race was an old fogy notion. The main part of his speech was similar to other recent speeches already published. Earnest attention was paid to the speech throughout, and the Senator was frequently and heartily applauded. He was serenaded to-night after his speech. He leaves for home to-morrow morning.

DIED OF APOPLEXY.

Gen. J. T. Boyle died suddenly of apoplexy at his residence in this city this afternoon at three o'clock. He had been complaining of cramp in the stomach since last night and had taken some medicine, but thought the case of not much importance. He was lying in bed when he remarked to his wife: "I believe its going to my head," and almost immediately threw his hand to his head exclaiming, "It is," and died instantly. Gen. Boyle was 53 years old, a leading lawyer and one of the most prominent and energetic citizens of this city, identified with many important public enterprises. He was the chief mover and President of the Evansville, Henderson and Nashville Railroad recently completed and was actively engaged in promoting the narrow gauge road from this city to Westport. He was a Brigadier General in the Federal army during the war and at one time military Governor of Kentucky. His father was Judge Johnson Boyle former Chief Justice of Kentucky.

ST. LOUIS.

Probable Fatal Shooting Affair.

ST. LOUIS, July 28—About eleven o'clock last night as Mr. Munson Beach, a well known citizen, was sitting on the steps of his boarding house, No. 706 Pine street, he was shot twice, and it is feared mortally wounded, by Joseph H. Fore, of Shelbyville, Kentucky. About three years ago Fore was wealthy, and married a sister of Mr. Beach's wife, but subsequently became very dissipated and treated his wife in a brutal manner. Some ten days ago Mrs. Fore applied for a divorce, and has since been living in Beach's family. Fore has endeavored to induce his wife to return to him but she refused, and yesterday he made demonstrations at the house, threatening to shoot both Mr. and Mrs. Beach for influencing his wife against him. Last night while under the influence of liquor and desperate at the loss of his wife, he shot Beach as above stated. He has not yet been arrested, although diligent search is being made for him.

HEAVY SUIT.

The Jacksonville (Illinois) correspondent of the Democrat says a suit involving probably nearly a million dollars was commenced to-day in the Morgan county Circuit Court by Rebecca W. Vail, William H. Carson, Nancy Rose, Mary Barker and eight others, against Kitty Flynn, Thos. M. Carson, Thos. Roe and fourteen others. The bill alleges that on a day, too remote to be mentioned with certainty, but about one hundred years ago, one A M. Roe, of the State of Virginia, became possessed by discovery of a certain precious stone, remarkable for its hardness and brilliancy, and so far as has been tested, its characteristics are those of a diamond of the first water. That this stone is one and a half inches in diameter one way, and something larger the other way, and is of eight hundred thousand dollars value, and that this stone is now in the possession of Thomas M. Carson of Jacksonville. The plaintiffs asked that defendant be compelled to bring this gem into court and a receiver be appointed by the court to sell it and distribute the proceeds among the heirs. The value of this stone was but lately ascertained, although it has been in the possession of Wm. Roe and heirs over a century

SURRENDERED.

Joseph H. Fore, who shot Munson Beach, last night surrendered himself to-day and is now in confinement and says he was crazy drunk last night, recollects firing a revolver but does not remember shooting Beach. He was in South St. Louis, six miles below the center of the city when he gave himself up, but asserts he does not know how he got there. He also says the first real knowledge he had of the shooting was derived from the papers. Mr. Beach is very low to-night and is not expected to live till morning.

CINCINNATI, July 28.—On Wednesday night an engineer named Thomas, near Logansport, in looking out on one side of his engine struck his head against a cattle chute and was instantly killed.

SPIRIT MANIFESTATION.

They have a first-class sensation near Germantown, Ohio, in the shape of manifestations of spirits at the house of Benj. Stiver. Furniture was removed, milk crocks upset, eatables disturbed, and the whole household disarranged in the most extraordinary manner. Eight members of the family, though not all residing together, appear in an article in the Commercial this morning, under oath, reciting the circumstances with singular particularity. The affiants are old citizens and have the general respect of people of that part of the country.

LIGHTNING FREAKS.

During the brief storm last night, which was more severe in the upper part of the city than was at first supposed, the lightning descended the gas pipe of a colored church on Broadway, and extinguished the gas which was lighted preparatory to a wedding ceremony and prostrated pastor R. A. Johnson speechless for about twenty minutes, though he did not appear to have sustained any permanent injury.

THE FRUIT CROP.

The fruit crop in this vicinity is coming out beyond expectation. Peaches are more abundant than last year, above average in quantity, and the fruit of better quality. Apples have not been of so good quality for ten years, and the yield is fair. There has not been such a crop of plums within a decade. The entire season is three weeks earlier than common.

FREIGHT REDUCED.

Private dispatches received to-day state that the rates for freight from New York to Cincinnati have been reduced to forty-one cents on the first four classes and to thirty cents on special.

KILLED.

An obscure and aged wood gatherer was run over and killed by a train this afternoon at the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Depot.

BLOWN OPEN.

The safe of J. Kaufman, of Osborne, Ohio, was blown open last night and $600 taken therefrom. No arrests.

CHICAGO.

Rumor.

CHICAGO, July 28.—The Ottawa, Illinois, Republican has a report that B. C. Cook, Representative in Congress from the XIth District of the State, is about to resign that position in order to accept the Solicitor-Generalship of the Chicago and North Western Railroad Company.

ARBITRATION.

The Commission of Arbitration on the value of the property of the Green Bay and Mississippi Canal Company on the Fox River, and its claims against the Government on its assuming the Fox and Wisconsin Improvement, is now filled. The Government, on its part, selected Colonel William Lampabee, of Iowa; the Improvement Company selected Hon. Jas. R. Dolittle, and the two have agreed on the Honble. Paul Dellingham, of Vermont, as the third member of the board. Hon. E. W. Keith, of Madison, Wisconsin, has been appointed by the Secretary of war to act as Attorney for the Government in the investigation It is expected that the board will meet at Green Bay, early in August and proceed to make a careful examination of the works of the improvement Company after which it will go on with investigation in accordance with the law of Congress.

BOSTON.

Hartford and Erie.

BOSTON, July 28.—In the Supreme Court this forenoon, J. G. Abbott, counsel for the Boston, Hartford & Erie Railroad, and H. D. Hyde, counsel for George Ellis, of New York, withdrew their objections to the admission of new trustees, Messrs. Wm. T. Hart, George Talbot Oliphant and Charles P. Clark, as parties to the suit of George Ellis and others for foreclosure of the Bardell mortgage. The Court thereupon issued a decree admitting the trustees as parties, in accordance with the prayer of the petition. The receivers, who for the past year have been managing the road by order of the Court, hold their last meeting in this city to-morrow, when the entire property of the road will be passed into the hands of the new trustees. It is believed that the action will be entirely harmonious between the receivers and trustees and that the litigation in reference to the road has ceased, except the pending proceedings in bankruptcy in the United States Court, which cannot affect property covered by the Bardell mortgage.

NEW YORK.

Burned Alive.

HUDSON, July 28.—A special dispatch to the Evening Register says a frightful accident occurred yesterday afternoon on Cement Hill near Rondout. Both criminals made short and forcible speeches on the gallows, protesting their entire innocence. Even after the black caps had been adjusted they were loud in their protestations that they were not guilty. The execution took plack at 12:45 in the afternoon and passed off quietly.

SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—The fall clip of wool is beginning to arrive. Some shearing lambs sold at thirty cents.

THE INDIANS.

The Apaches raided on Camp Bowie, Arizona, running off with a beef herd from within musket shot of the parade ground at daylight, killing a butcher named McDougal and a Mexican. The troops killed and wounded several Indians, but they carried off the herd. General Stoneman's departure on a campaign is evidently known to the Apaches who attacked the fort accordingly.

NEW JERSEY.

Political.

NEWARK, July 28.—The New Jersey Republican Committee has called the State Convention to nominate a Republican candidate for Governor, to be held at Trenton on Thursday, September 7. There is one delegate for each thousand of the population, making nine hundred delegates in all.

PAREPA-ROSA will sail from Liverpool next Saturday. In her company will be Mrs. Van Zandt, who has had a brilliant career in London and on the continent; Clara Doria, an English light soprano, daughter of the composer John Barnett; Tom Karl, said to be the Adonis of English tenors, fresh from Italy; Mr. and Mrs. Aynsley Cook, baritone and contralto; and several artists of lesser note, to say nothing of such excellent and old favorites as the Seguins, Castle and Campbell. Mr. Carl Rosa will direct the company and conduct the orchestra.

A DUEL with sabers has just taken place near Amiens between a young man of that town, aged 20, and a Prussian officer. The latter, in walking through the streets had puffed the smoke of his cigar in the face of the other, who replied to this insult by slapping the German in the face. The officer did not demand the intervention of the armed forces, but a meeting took place the next morning, when the Frenchman, who had been a corporal of Hussars in Faidherbe's army, killed his adversary.

NEW ORLEANS.

Delegates.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—The election of delegates to the Republican State Convention, which meets here on the 9th of August, is progressing throughout the parishes. NOTWITHSTANDING the bitter hostility of their descendents, there was one point on which King James and the Prince of Orange were quite agreed; both were fond of Pier, Dannals & Co.'s cream ale.

LOUISVILLE
CEMENT.
The Best--The Cheapest.
The Cement has acquired the reputation as the first in the country in hydraulic strength and uniform reliability.
It is now in general use from the lakes to the Gulf, most of the public works in the West and South being constructed with it.
The mills at Louisville having been enlarged and improved, can supply any demand, and though the Cement has always, for 30 years brought higher prices than competing brands, it is from this time the determination of the manufacturers, in order to largely increase the sale and extend the use of their Cement, to furnish it to the principal markets at prices which make it the most available and economical for all classes of work.
The large capacity of this Cement for taking sand renders it much the cheapest that can be used for buildings of any kind.
At the reduced prices in Pittsburgh its cost is not much above common lime, which makes it unquestionably to the interest of owners and builders that the foundation of every good house should be laid in this Cement.
A large stock of fresh Cement has just been received by barges from Louisville, and is offered at greatly reduced prices by the following dealers:

7-30 GOLD LOAN
OF THE
Northern Pacific Railroad.
RAPID PROGRESS OF THE WORK.
The building of the Northern Pacific Railroad (begun July last,) is being pushed forward with great energy from both extremities of the line. Several thousand men are employed in Minnesota and on the Pacific coast. The grade is nearly completed 266 miles westward from Lake Superior; trains are running over 130 miles of finished road, and track-laying is rapidly progressing toward the eastern border of Dakota. Including its purchase of the St. Paul & Pacific Road, the Northern Pacific Company now has 413 miles of completed road, and by September next this will be increased to at least 560.
A GOOD INVESTMENT.—Jay Cooke & Co. are now selling, and unhesitatingly recommend as a profitable and perfectly safe investment, the First Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. They have 30 years to run, bear Seven and Three-Tenths per cent. gold interest, (more than 8 per cent. currency) and are secured by first and only mortgage on the ENTIRE ROAD AND ITS EQUIPMENTS, and also, as fast as the road is completed, on 23,000 ACRES OF LAND to every mile of track, or 500 acres for each $1,000 bond. They are exempt from U. S Tax; principal and interest are payable in gold; Denominations: Coupons, $100 to $1,000; Registered, $100 to $10,000.
LANDS FOR BONDS.—Northern Pacific 7-30's are at all times receivable at TEN PER CENT. ABOVE PAR, in exchange for the Company's Lands, at their lowest cash price. This renders them practically INTEREST BEARING LAND WARRANTS.
SINKING FUND.—The proceeds of all sales of Lands are required to be devoted to the re-purchase and cancellation of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Company. The land grant of the Road exceeds Fifty Million Acres. This immense Sinking Fund will undoubtedly cancel the principal of the Company's bonded debt before it falls due. With their ample security and high rate of interest, there is no investment accessible to the people which is more PROFITABLE OR SAFE.
EXCHANGING U. S. FIVE-TWENTIES.—The success of the New Government 5 per cent Loan will compel the early surrender of United States 6 per cents. Many holders of Five-Twenties are now exchanging them for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties, thus realizing a handsome profit, and greatly increasing their yearly income.
OTHER SECURITIES.—All marketable Stocks and Bonds will be received at their highest current prices in exchange for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties. EXPRESS CHARGES on Money or Bonds received, and on Seven-Thirties sent in return will be paid by the Financial Agents. Full information, maps, pamphlets, etc., can be obtained on application at any agency, or from the undersigned. For sale by GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 112.

SEVERE STORMS have been raging for some days past on the sea coast, making the watering places anything but agreeable. Those airy hotels, and summer cottages where the loungers at the ocean bathing places are wont to bask in the warm sunshine, have been permeated with an atmosphere, quite too chilling for comfort. Think of a cold winter blast, accompanied with hail, amid frightful thunder and lightning, and a shivery thinly clad army of desponding health seekers, and you have a picture of Long Branch, or Cape May, as it looks at present.

"All the Times has done was to publish accounts which were open to ever ybody."—Post.

THIS is simply not true. The accounts published by the New York Times, of the expenditures of the city government, had been refused over and over again to the press, by the City Controller. Representatives of nearly all of the city papers had applied for a statement of the city finances time and again, and were always met with a flat refusal. Editorial paragraphs had been frequently written, and numerous communications from leading citizens had been published, all calling upon Controller Connolly for a statement of the receipts, disbursements and indebtedness of the city, but no attention was paid to them. This being the condition of affairs, the Times, secretly and by some means unknown as yet to the public, obtained transcripts from the records, and these it has published, and is still publishing, with damaging effect to the municipal officers of New York, the Tammany Ring and their Democratic supporters. It was to suppress the publication of these accounts that the Times was offered the sum of one million dollars, and, to its credit be it said, refused it. It is a rare exhibition of moral honesty, amidst great temptation. Has the Post no words of condemnation for the startling exhibition of official depravity among the Democratic office holders of New York? Can it find no better use for its columns than attempts to ridicule and belittle the efforts of the independent press to rid that city of the dishonest Ring, which so basely misuse their trust? It would be creditable to that journal if it were able to throw off the shackles of party bias, and call upon the people to hurl from power any one found abusing his office, even though he be a Democrat. But it is expecting too much, we fear from our friends of the departure school of politics.

AND NOW COMES the announcement that a convention of the advocates and friends of temperance will be held at Harrisburg on the 9th proximo, for the express purpose of organizing a new or third political party, and that with but one platform—total prohibition. If all the people friendly to the good cause in this Commonwealth would put in an appearance on the occasion, Harrisburg could not contain them; but the movement is not, by any means, a popular one with the great majority of our temperance folks, and has no color of authority from any regularly constituted organization. Recently, after a thorough consideration of the subject of temperance as a political question, the State Temperance Committee resolved that it should not drag the cause into politics. This was, in our view of the situation, an eminently wise and prudent resolution. Those, however, who were not satisfied with the course of that Committee have resolved—and it is their right unquestionably so to do—to erect a new party, and to appeal to voters to ignore all political issues and vote for temperance candidates alone. Is such a course wise? Will it inure to the good of the cause next to the hearts of the new party projectors? Will it not tend to divide what temperance advocates have already accomplished inside the ranks of the two great political parties now in existence. We think it very unsafe to step outside of the great progressive Republican party for the purpose of effecting any moral reform. If the new third party be organized its membership will be drawn almost entirely from Republican ranks, for the opposition are too well drilled and disciplined to leave their party to accomplish any purpose. By no possibility can the State be carried by any independent party, acting outside of either of the existing organizations, and we do hope that our temperance friends and agitators will recognize the fact before entering the field with their own candidates. Such a movement may jeopardize the Republican party ticket next fall, or even throw victory into the hands of the enemy, but it cannot possibly advance the true and good cause of Temperance in any direction.

QUEEN VICTORIA has gone to spend the hot months at Balmoral. Emperor William, of Germany, after visiting the Springs at Ems, has gone on a visit to the Czar of Russia; the latter having vacated his high chair and agreed to meet him on the border. The Emperor and Empress of Brazil are touring over in Europe. Bismarck is away from his post of duty, for a wonder, and everything appears to be all agog among the rulers and potentates of the earth. No wonder the immaculate Democracy are bewildered and bemoan the sad times upon which we have fallen. Everybody wants to go to the country, to the sea-shore, to the springs, to the mountains or somewhere to get out of the dust and stifling air of the crowded cities. Even our rulers, including Emperors as well as Presidents and Cabinet officers, have been overtaken with the prevailing fever of unrest, and desire to inhale for a short time a little pure air, too. What will the Democracy do if our office holders don't learn that their places are upon their high counting-room stools, and that the people will not stand this thing of running about through the country? Aye, says one virtuous Democrat (who would not carry off a locomotive, we suspect, simply because it would trouble him to shoulder it,) their salaries must be reduced, the people cannot afford to be paying them, while they are indulging in iced lemonades, and such stuff at the ocean side. Mr. Bismarck, and his old friend William, the Emperor, the Czar, and Mrs. Victoria should be notified by the National Democratic Committee that they are setting very bad examples before the office holders of this country, in roaming around through the country, and visiting their friends, and all that sort of thing, you know. It will not do, it must be stopped, the country cannot stand it.' 'Cut down their salaries, if they persist in such conduct,' say our friends, the stay at home Democrats, 'we don't go to the sea shore, or the springs, or indulge in any such nonsense, and the President ought not to either.' And we are sorry to add that such a sensible journal as the Pittsburgh Post joins in this mean, contemptible outcry.

THE PERKINS CASE.

As most of our readers have doubtless heard, from time to time, of the Perkins case, and as there are, equally doubtless, many of them who do not know what the Perkins case is, we shall endeavor to give as clear and condensed an account of it as possible.

The Perkins version of the case is this: In the midst of the Crimean war, when Russia was blockaded and invaded, she needed a new supply of arms and munitions of war, to obtain which she sent one Rakielevitch to this country to contract largely for such articles, refusing, however, because of the great risk, to remunerate the contractors until after the delivery of the goods on Russian soil. This Rakielevitch offered one Captain Benjamin W. Perkins, of Worcester, Mass., brilliant inducements to make a contract for furnishing the material. Perkins, met the agent and Baron Stoeckel, the Russian Minister, in New York, and signed a contract, on June 16th, 1855, which called upon Perkins to furnish one hundred and fifty tons of powder to the Russian government. Not long after this, Perkins signed another contract with Captain Otto Lilienfeldt, an officer in the Russian artillery, and an agent of that government, to furnish him with 35,000 rifles, altered from muskets. These guns were accepted and the contract closed. Captain Perkins also bought the powder, and was at work upon the alterations in the guns, when, without any explanation, both of the Russians, without explanation, broke their contracts. For this Captain Perkins claimed $400,000, but his heirs claim the accumulated interest, which makes the sum now demanded nearly one million dollars.

The Russian version is different. It asserts that all of Perkins' claims are fraudulent, that Minister Stoeckel had no authority to make such contracts, that Rakielevitch had no authority to act as agent of the Russian government, which, whether in peace or war, can find persons of ability and experience to be duly qualified to attend to its affairs, and that any order given in a foreign country must be drawn up in ink in legal form. Then again in relation to the 35,000 stands of arms, it is asserted thet they were damaged flint locks belonging to George Law, from whom Perkins agreed to purchase them if he could sell them to Russia, and that no loss or expenditure whatever was sustained by Perkins by the pretended breach of contract. The Russian government says that Captain Perkins made advantageous offers to Captain Lilienfeldt, which that officer agreed to accept if properly guaranteed, and Perkins was unable to furnish the requisite sureties, thus annulling the arrangement.

Under various Secretaries of State and through the past fifteen years, this claim has been urged. At the time of the Alaska Appropriation Bill, Mrs. Perkins urged that the amount of her claims should be withheld from the sum due to Russia, and such action was not taken simply because it would have been a breach of the treaty by which Alaska was transferred. When Mr. Catacazy succeeded Baron Stoeckel at Washington the Secretary of State appointed Mr. E. Peshine Smith as arbitrator in the case, and he, after hearing both sides, decided against the claim on the powder contract, because the Russian government denies Stoeckel's authority to make it, but he maintained that Russia should pay for 35,000 muskets at fifteen dollars a piece with six per cent interest from June 1855. But it is very doubtful if Russia will ever agree to abide by this decision of Mr. Smith's.

ERLIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The changes proposed in the Protestant Churchman, in the Baptismal Office, to be urged at the coming General Convention of the Episcopal Church, recently noticed, according to The Churchman, the historical acts, relating to the omission in the Prayer Book in 1785, of regeneration and other words used in the form of infant baptism, are not correctly given. It argues that the action of the Convention of 1785 did not meet with general acceptance in the Church: that not one of the seven dioceses represented ratified or accepted it, and its use continued, in abeyance, until 1789, since which the form of the Baptismal Office has been unchanged until the present. It thinks, therefore, the real question that will be before the Convention in 1871, if the proposed omissions are to be pressed, is this: Shall we reverse the deliberate action of 1789, taken after four years consideration, touching omissions hastily proposed in 1785?

The Protestant Churchman, representing the Low Church party, presents another question somewhat akin to the above, that a declaration be prefixed to the Prayer Book, or immediately following the preface: "Whenever throughout the book the word 'priest' is used as designating a minister of this Church, it is to be understood as equivalent to 'presbyter,' and meaning the same." The following reasons are given for this request: 1.—Because Christian ministers are never designated as priests in the New Testament. 2—Because priestly functions are never ascribed to the ministers of Christ in God's Word. 3—Because the claim that the ministery is a priesthood intrudes within the sphere of the exclusive and all-sufficient priesthood of Christ. 4—Because a human priesthood is the bane of every land where it exists in overwhelming numbers and influence.

The Independent gives an interesting account of two young ladies in Reading, Massachusetts, members of Bethseda Congregational church in that place, who were instrumental in paying off a debt which had been afflicting the congregation for five years. This is a feature in the "Woman Rights" question that no one could well object to the fair sex adopting. The example is worth imitating and we hope many will try the plan.

A Convention of Praying Bandsmen, connected with Methodist churches in New England, was recently held in East Cambridge, Massachusetts. It was composed of nearly three hundred members. It heard reports of the various Bands, two of which were composed of women. The chief questions discussed were, whether the Bands should have a permanent leader or not, and whether there should be exchanges among the Bands as among the ministry. It was finally decided favorably to having permanent leaders and make exchanges.

The question of entertaining the Presbyterian General Assembly is agitated a good deal of late. A correspondent of the Presbyterian Banner, an Elder, takes the ground that the delegates should provide for their own entertainment, as they do in Scotland and Ireland, at hotels or boarding houses, and that every Presbytery ought to provide for the whole expense of their Commissioners. He gives the following bit of experience: "When I was a member of the General Assembly in Philadelphia, and was handing my commission to a member of the Committee, the first inquiry was, 'Do you use tobacco?'—adding if I did not, he could assign me pleasant quarters, and was sent to one of the first mansions in the city. If I had used tobacco, I don't know what what they would have done with me."

Bishop Simpson's health is improving slowly, and hopes are entertained that he will be able to preside at the Conferences assigned him in the Episcopal Plan. At the late commencement of Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., the Bishop was honored with the degree of LL.D.

The Baptist Union does not believe in close communion, and advises individuals and churches to act as they see proper, and argues that both should—be left entirely free to treat the question independently, without incurring the displeasure of either party on the question.

Frequently the remark is made, to those who entertain conscientious views on certain things in the Episcopal Church, that the "door is open, let those brethren go and join some denomination, where they can labor with content." The Episcopalian pertinently asks "But is the door of exit really open?" It answers No, and shows that when a minister feels he cannot be any longer a minister of this Church; there is no canon provided for his removal to the Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, or Congregational churches, but the Bishop proceeds to depose him, to remove him from the ministry, to degrade him from the ministry. It regards these very hard names, implying humiliation and a taint of some kind. Men hesitate to have such announcements made concerning them, and thus, it alleges, is one cause of the "reasons."

Mount Union College, Ohio, honored Rev. W. B. Watkins, with the degree of D.D. Dr. Watkins has been long and favorably known as a fine preacher, accomplished lecturer, and a writer of much ability. He is Presiding Elder of the Steubenville District, Pittsburgh M. E. Conference.

Mount Sewickley Camp-meeting, not far from the city, will commence August 8th. This will be the first time it will be occupied since the purchase and improvement of the ground, though the grove has been used once or twice before for that purpose. The trustees are making some substantial improvements, combining comfort and elegance, and showing a degree of liberality in their outlay of money, worthy of emulation by those in the management of other grounds.

The Moravians have erected a monument upon the site of Friedenshutter in this State to preserve the memory of that settlement and of its heroic founders. It was recently dedicated with suitable services among which was an historical address by Bishop Reinke.

There are seventeen Sweedish Lutheran pastors in Minnesota. The work, however, requires about fifty. New congregations have lately been organized at prominent points.

Rev. Dr. Jonathan Edwards, of Baltimore, has received a unanimous call to the First Presbyterian church, Peroia Illinois.

PITTSBURGH, July 27, 1871.

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE: Will you permit me to say a word to the Republican voters of this city through the columns of your valuable paper in regard to conducting the primary meetings for city offices. There can be doubt the system that we now have in contemplation will in many instances result as you say "in permitting the Democrats to largely assist us in making our nominations, certainly not a desirable state of affairs to exist in a Republican district, and will not only give us the weakest men in the field as nominees, but will lose to us many good sound Republican votes." The fact is, that many of the staunchest Republicans of my ward do not hesitate to say that if the primaries are not conducted in such a way as will secure an honest expression of the choice of the people that they will not support the ticket; unfortunately there is no law to govern primary meetings, and as the City Executive Committee are the representatives of the Republican voters it is clearly their duty to provide such safeguards for their constituents as will secure to them the power to make their own choice of candidates without the assistance of the Democracy.

Let Jos. A. Butler, Chairman, convene the City Republican Executive Committee and let this matter be brought clearly before them, and let them take such action as will subserve the ends of impartial justice by issuing an order that the election Boards in every ward be required to take an oath to honestly perform their duty, and any Board or any member of any Board who shall refuse to be so sworn shall be removed, and that the electors at the polls shall elect members of boards or full boards to fill vacancies. Let the committee do this, and then? And not until then will they have performed the duties for which the people chose them.

EIGHTH WARD.

AN ENCOUNTER WITH A MOB.

What was Provoked by the Cry, "I'm Not an Orangeman!"

[From the New York Sun, July 26]

While Sergeant Brooks was riding down in a Second avenue car, yesterday afternoon, he saw two men apparently fighting in Forty-fifth street. He ran to the spot. One of the combatants told the sergeant that he had been robbed of a watch by the man he was holding. The sergeant, who was in civilian dress, put on his shield and arrested the thief. A short struggle ensued, and the sergeant threw his man. He placed his hand in the thief's pocket and pulled out the watch He asked the man whether it was his. The gentleman, replying that it was, took it. The unknown gentleman having recovered his watch went away, leaving the sergeant alone to struggle with the Dutch Hill desperadoes.

The ruffians wrenched the sergeant's shield from his coat. The thief cried out, "I'm no Orangeman!"

At these words every Hibernian there lent a helping hand to the thief. The thief regained his feet and started toward First avenue. The sergeant pursued and captured him, and a desperate struggle ensued. The sergeant threw the thief so violently to the ground that he groaned with pain.

The mob increased. The sergeant held his man, and asked some gentleman there to summon an officer; but none would volunteer. The thief again shouted that he was not an Orangeman, and the mob assaulted the sergeant with stones and other missiles. The thief was again rescued from the sergeant, who had left his pistol at home.

After the second rescue the sergeant resolved at all hazards to capture the thief. The thief when he regained his feet was unable to run fast, as the second throw had somewhat injured him; but his confederates helped him along. The mob endeavored to keep the sergeant back; but he broke from them, and again catching up with the thief, singled him out of the crowd, and tried to take him into custody. A terrible fight followed. The sergeant received a severe blow on the head, and was bruised all over the body. He grappled with the thief, and again threw him to the ground.

Stones and missiles were flying about his head. A large mob was hooting and ready to kill him. No officer was to be seen, but he held his man. Yet the mob again rescued the prisoner.

At First avenue is a precipice of about twenty-five feet. The thief and his gang ran down that precipice, and the sergeant attempted to follow, but the mob on the top began to hurl small stones at him. It would have been sure death to follow, and he was compelled to desist. His coat was torn to shreds

After the encounter a boy found the sergeant's shield, with the pin broken off. The thief's coat was afterward found with a subpœna in its pocket, written by Justice Bixby on the 14th of July, on the complaint of William McClusky against William Hernon. Word was sent to the Fifty-ninth street station, but when the police arrived all was quiet.

How Cochise Became the White Man's Foe.

General Stoneman says that when he first saw the Apaches in 1846, they were splendidly mounted; every warrior rode a stallion and every squaw a mare. They were dressed in buckskins, their lances were bright and their trappings superb. Seven hundred of them rode together. They were the terror of Mexico, and rode far into the republic; but they treated the Americans with chivalry, and bands of California immigrants could ride through Arizona unharmed. The Arizona Apache is now a starving hyena, eating squirrels, rats, owls, anything to keep life and vengeance alive. Cochise himself is said to be a splendid physical speciman of a man, of wonderful alertness and remarkable sagacity. He was at peace with the whites when his camp was attacked, and his wife and brother captured. Some days afterward he and nine other men rode up to the attacking party, mounted on good horses and holding lariats, to which were attached the necks of nine white captives. Cochise's message was: "Give up my wife and my brother, and these prisoners shall be set free." The white people answered this by hanging on a gallows the chief's wife and brother, and immediately the Indians bounded off, dragging the unfortunate hostages over the desert. Since that time Cochise has been merciless in his vengeance, and his name is a terror throughout the border. Although the horrible cruelties he has committed on unoffending whites cannot be excused, it must be remembered that he was not the aggressor in the first instance, and that he was only pursuing the mode of warfare which is considered perfectly legitimate among his race. If this remarkable man could be induced to becom friendly once more his influence on the wild tribes would be of incalculable advantage to us.—[Nashville (Tenn.) Banner.

A GENTLEMAN in England who recently captured a whale and paid a friend half-a-crown to inform him Low to preserve it, was advised to "put the whale carefully into a glass bottle, cover it over with spirits of wine, (strong whisky may do) and then cork and seal up."

A Pertinent Question.

In speaking of the New York riot the London Times says:

Now, this sad affair forces upon us one reflection. In America, the Protestants are not landlords, nor the Roman Catholics tenants; no dominant Church has ever been pulled down, nor does any exist to be supported; no ancient walls like those of Derry, or battle-fields like that of the Boyne, recall the memory of ancient conflicts; and no ground of antagonism, either social or political, divides the one faction from the other. If, therefore, Irish party feuds are as implacable in America as in Ireland, and even more sanguinary, it concerns Irishmen to ask themselves whether Irish nature is not more responsible for their origin than English misrule, especially as history attests their prevalence long before the Conquest.

ATTEND TO YOUR FEET----CORNS.

One of the most wonderful preparations which has come into use recently is ROBINSON'S CORN PENCIL, which removes from the feet these troublesome excrescences, and that, too, without any pain. Robinson's Corn Solvent dissolves and disintegrates the corn entirely, leaving the feet as smooth and healthy as if the corn had never been there.

It not only removes corns, but warts and bunions, and indurations of any kind are freely removed. Let any one whose feet are troubled with these pests try it at once, and every particle of indurated matter can be removed from the feet. They are sold at 50 cents each, or by the dozen, at KEYSER'S, 167 Liberty street. Sent by mail for 60 cents.

A PERILOUS SEASON.

Glorious and delightful as the Summer weather is, its tropical heat is a severe trial to the vital powers. Even the strongest are sometimes prostrated by its effects. The common phrase applied to this condition of the body is "general debility." Now, general debility arises from, and includes a variety of ailments. The liver is more or less affected, the bowels are either constipated or too much relaxed, the stomach but half performs the work of digestion, the appetite is poor, and the spirits depressed. This is what is called general debility. It is a general disarrangement of all the physical functions, and requires as a remedy a medicine that will regulate them all. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is specially adapted to this purpose. Its general operation is not confined to a single organ. If the liver is affected, it restores its tone. If the stomach is torpid, it regenerates it. If the nerves are tremulous and weak, it braces and reinforces them. If the mind, which ever sympathizes with the body, is gloomy and despondent, it relieves the difficulty, and soon brings the whole mechanism of the body into harmony with the laws of health.

There is no civilized nation in the Western Hemisphere in which the utility of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a tonic, corrective, and antibilious medicine, is not known and appreciated. Throughout the Tropics it is considered, both by the people and the profession, the standard specific. While it is a medicine for all seasons and all climates, it is especially suited to the complaints generated by the weather, being the purest and best vegetable stimulant in the world.

Beware of the Bitters made of acrid and dangerous materials, which unscrupulous parties are endeavoring to foist upon the people. Their name is legion, and the public has no guarantee that they are not poisonous. Adhere to the tried remedy, Hostetter's Bitters, sold only in glass and never in kegs or barrels.

ADDRESS TO THE
Nervous and Debilitated,

Whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable. If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness of palpitation of the heart?

How many men, from the effects of excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in Sexual Organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have used remedies for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility and all diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

HELMBOLD'S
FLUID EXTRACT

Being prepared expressly for the above complaints, its Blood-Purifying properties are greater than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla. It gives the complexion a clear and healthy color, and restores the patient to a state of health and purity. For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Erysipelas and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and Beautifying the Complexion.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
To its Natural Vitality and Color.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray: either of them disposes it to fall off prematurely, and either effect is unsightly and unpleasant to behold. DR. AYER'S consummate skill has produced an antidote for these deformities, which has won gratitude for him from multitudes of women and men. His HAIR VIGOR sometimes reproduces lost hair; and always restores to faded and gray hair its natural color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. The comparatively few bald and gray heads, that we now see, are those who have not yet discovered the virtues of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR for renewing the hair. The fresh and youthful hair we see on older heads is often the product of his art. If you are disfigured, or made old, austere and ugly, by gray hair, restore its youthful color, and with it your features to their original softness and agreeable expression.

As an elegant dressing for beautifying the Hair, it has no superior.

That portion of the $850,000 gold interest of August 1, which is held by Western bondholders, will be forwarded direct. That section of the country has always complained that New York has had an excess of the floating capital, owing to the Government disbursements in being made there, and therefore the rates of exchange were fixed at a low rate in New York, while in the Western States they were at a high rate.

Closing quotations as received by James T. Brady & Co:

U. S. 10-40	113¾	Cy Pacifics	113¾

NEW YORK, July 28, 1871.

Gold dull, and looks as if lower prices will be made. The cliques are trying not to let it drop below 112; opened at 112¼ and closed at 112. Loans were made from 1 to 4 per cent., per annum, and 1 6-4 of 1 per cent., per day for use. Clearings, thirty-two millions. The shipments for to-morrow are estimated at $485,000. Governments firm; 10-40's are so scarce that not a bond can be procured for delivery. They are up to the English price, and a rumor is afloat that large purchases have been made abroad to meet the demand here. The stock market has been strong with increased business. New York Central and Hudson river stock, and Scrip, Wabash, St. Paul, Reading and Ohio and Mississippi were the leading stocks with good buyers. The bears seemed surprised at the advance in the market, and opposed it strongly all day, but the prices improved in spite of all their efforts. Bulls think the bears have depressed the market as far as they can, and are looking for an active and buoyant market. Market closed dull and firm, speculators generally are awaiting the return of the Lake Shore party from Cleveland, and the future market depends very much on the amount of cash to be called upon new Lake Shore stock. Money very easy at 2@3. State bonds dull. Tennessees steady; Missouri and new South Carolina very weak.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, July 28, 1871.

ASHES—Common Soda ash, 4@4¼; refined, 4¾@4¾; Pearls, 9; Pots, 7¾; Nitrate Soda, 4¾.

BEANS—Prime navy in demand, and would command $2,00@2,25 per bushel.

BROOM CORN—Prime green brush selling at 7 cts; sales of some three or four car loads of common red at 5¾.

BUTTER—The market is quiet, and, notwithstanding the receipts are comparatively light, the supply seems to be fully up to the demand; we continue to quote at 12@14 for fair to medium and 16@18 for prime to choice.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 33@35c.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2,50@3,00 per bbl. Rosendale, $4,00@4,50; Calcined Plaster, $4.25@4,50.

COUNTRY MEAT—The supply is considerably reduced, but there is not much inquiry for it. Country Lard, 9@10c.

CANNED GOODS—The season is about over and as there is little doing in goods of this character we omit quotations.

CHEESE—Prime Ohio Goshen, 10¾@11; prime Factory, 9¾@10; Dairy, 8@9.

CORN MEAL—The inquiry is light and mainly for small lots, while prices remain unchanged, 80@85 per bushel.

COTTON—We can report sales to upholsterers at 15 cts per lb.

CEDAR LUMBER—Sales of 1 inch boards at $100 per 1,000 feet. Cedar Posts, 45@50 cents each.

CARBON OIL—The market is quiet and unchanged; we continue to quote standard brands, in a jobbing way, at 24—usual advance for small lots.

EGGS—Fresh eggs are reported firmer, in consequence of a temporary scarcity, but there is no improvement in the demand, and prices are without quotable change, 16@17—most of the sales at the inside quotation.

FRUITS—The receipts of Apples continue meagre, and with a steady demand, prices are well maintained, $4,50@5,50 per bbl. for fair to choice. Peaches in good supply and prices lower, $1@2 per box—but few sales above $1,50. Plums may be quoted at $3,50@4,00 per bushel. Pears, $1,50@2,00 per box. The receipts of Blackberries have fallen off considerably and the bulk of the receipts are in bad condition, having been considerably injured by the recent rains. Foreign Fruits, dull and nominally unchanged.

FEATHERS—First quality live geese quoted at 70@72 cts. But little doing.

FLOUR—Market very dull—buyers nearly all holding off in expectation of a further decline, and the indications at present are that their anticipations will soon be realized. We now quote good spring extras at $6,50@6,75; choice Minnesota baker's flour, $7, and good to choice red winter at $6,75@7,00. We hear of several lots of choice red winter having been contracted for, in first hands, to arrive, at $6,50.

GRAIN—The receipts of Wheat continue meagre but there is little or no inquiry for it, and prices are nominally unchanged, $1,15@1,20 for new red, and $1,20@1,25 for old. There seems to be considerable old stock in first hands yet—most of which it is reasonable to infer has been held for better prices. Oats irregular under the influence of the advices from the west, and it is difficult to quote correctly; as noted in our last report, the demand is mainly for small lots, on spot. Quotations for old crop may be given at 58@60. New crop for early delivery 47@50. Corn is dull and with increased offerings prices are weak and lower; we can report one car mixed ear at 64c; one car mixed shelled at 65; prime yellow shelled cannot be quoted above 68c. Rye—the receipts continue light but there is not much inquiry for it; we quote nominally at 75@80c. Some samples of new crop Barley on the market but we have heard of no sales as yet; it is supposed, however, that spring will open up at about 90c.

GROCERIES—The market is quiet and devoid of any new characteristics worthy of notice.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 19¾; Prime, 18¾; Good, 17; Fair, 16¾; Roasting, 16¾@18.

SYRUPS AND DRIPS—White Honey, 70. Havemyer & Elders, 70; Silver Drips, 60; other grades, 45@55.

SUGARS—Choice New Orleans, 11¾; prime, 11¾ good, 10¾; fully fair, 10¾; Porto Rico Sugars, 10¾@11¾; Cuba, 10@11; Demarara, 11¾@12¾.

REFINED SUGARS—Hard Sugars, 14; A Coffee, 13; "B," 12¾; Extra C, 12¾; C, yellow, 12¾.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, choice, 70; prime, 68; good, 65.

TEAS—Fancy Young Hyson, $1 40; Good, $1 10; Fair, $1. Lower grades down to 70cts. G. P. PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY July 28, 1871.

We have to report a very dull and weak market, not only here but also in Philadelphia and New York,—the dispatches in the afternoon from the latter place were of a decidedly panicky character. There seemed to be but little news from above, but it is reasonable to presume the intelligence from the east will not be without some effect, though, as is well-known, the producers are always very slow in responding to a decline, and somehow or other it always requires more time for news of this kind to reach the oil regions than other points. As will be seen, however, by reference to quotations, refined is very weak and drooping, and crude, also is lower, but it does not drop as rapidly as the former. The general feeling among operators, is if prices must go lower, the quicker the better, as business must of necessity lag, until there is some reason to believe that the bottom has been touched.

CRUDE.

Nothing doing in Pittsburgh deliveries. Parker—sale 3,000 bbls spot at $4,85; since offered at $4,82¾; seller 30 days sold at $4,77¾; lines July to December offered at $4,80.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, July 28, 1871.

The metal market has been comparatively quiet during the past week. The holders of metal have not been pushing it upon the market or making any concessions, in order to effect sales as it is believed that the regular demand will absorb all the metals seeking this market. The receipts from the eastward continue exceedingly light and that description of metal is consequently becoming very scarce.

The manufacturers continue complaints of low rates for finished iron, and many are refusing orders at the present inside figures, averring that if they sell at these prices, they lose money. In this condition of affairs it seems that bar iron has touched bottom for the present, and we may reasonably look for better prices. The same remarks will apply to the nail trade in which production to a considerable extent has been suspended.

The Sugar Crop.

[From the New Orleans Picayune, July 20.]

Advice from the country represent the cane crop of this state in splendid condition. The recent dry spell has enabled planters to put down the grass entirely, and the cane has been laid by in unusually healthy condition. The prospects were never better for a fine yield in proportion to the acreage planted. Everything now favors a large crop, but an early freeze may materially curtail the production, or protracted warm weather in the fall may retard the developement of the saccharine matter. With an average season, however, we may expect over 200,000 hogsheads, and probably 225,000 hogsheads.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Generally, the market opened quietly, if we except woolen shawls, which have already met with ready sales from the jobbers wherever an advance is not too great, and in no instance does the advance compare at all with the rapid rise in prices in raw material. Carpetings also were much sought after by the leading jobbing houses in anticipation of enhanced rates, owing to the great scarcity of this class of wools and raised an advance in price of the same. Woolens Flannels; leading makes sold far into autumn at a material rise. Canton Flannels have been taken freely by jobbers at the opening season, and in some cases are selling at figures which deter agents in some instances showing their new goods, because they mean to open them at much higher figures, in accordance with the advance in price. Staple colored and plain Cotton goods generally are creeping up in all low and medium grades. Imports on foreign goods at this port this week foot up to $3,475,044 and thrown upon the market $2,583,220.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was stationary last evening with 30 inches in the channel. Weather unsettled and warm, with strong indications at times of rain.

No arrivals or departures, and business at the landing is entirely suspended.

Capt. Geo. W. Ebert, of the steamer Mollie Ebert, was in town yesterday. Capt. Ebert is one of the oldest steamboatmen on the western waters.

—The local inspectors at Louisville in the case of the collision of the Mollie Ebert with the Wm. Cowan, on the 10th of April last have just rendered their decision. The license of B. Matheny, pilot on the Ebert has been suspended 60 days and that of Wm. Freilingdorf, pilot on the Cowan for 30 days. The following is the conclusion of the decision in question: "The steamer Mollie Ebert, from the evidence, placed herself through her pilot in a most enviable position to escape a collision, and her pilot was most emphatically to blame, in our opinion, in not replying promptly and clearly to the signal by the ascending steamer. There appears to be somewhat of a disposition on the part of passenger steamers and their officers to entirely disregard (to a certain extent, so to speak) the signal of a towing vessel, evidently considering them unworthy their notice. This feeling should be promptly and forever obliterated. While we do not desire nor intend to shield any one from the full and strict penalty of the law, we do consider that one vessel has the same privilege in every case as another.

—A Louisville paper says: Captain L. Kates, of the Nick Longworth, is in the city. A sharper, impersonating Captain Kates, walked into a clothing store some days since, and, selecting what clothing he wanted, said he would take the linen, as he was about to enjoy the luxury of a bath, and the remainder of the purchase could be sent to the boat with the bill. The clothing man insisted upon the counterfeit captain taking along the entire purchase, "it would be all right." The wish was complied with, since when there has been no settlement of the account.

—On July 1, 18 1, exactly seventy years ago, one of the first steamboats ever built made a trial trip on the Thames. This is the account of it given by the London papers of the day: An experiment has taken place on the river for the purpose of working a barge or any other heavy craft against wind and tide by means of a steam engine, on a very simple construction. The moment the engine was set to work, the barge was brought about, answering her helm quickly, and she proceeded at once to make way against a strong ebb tide at the rate of nearly two miles and a half an hour.

—The Evansville Journal says: Captain Jim McDonald, formerly pilot of the Hartford, and Billy Jarvis, the well known steamboat pilot, left on Saturday by the R. C. Gray for Memphis and Vicksburg. It it rumored that each will return with a new wife.

—Louis Hannauer's bar on the Olive Branch was insured for $1,000. He has run on the river since 1848, and eight boats have been sunk under him, and one burned. Louis takes it as a matter of course, and is already looking for another boat.

—From a private letter dated June 28, we learn the following: The Viola Belle and E. H. Durfee, en route to Fort Benton, Montana, turned back at Grand river after transferring their trip to the Silver Lake. The latter boat had some 30 or 40 passengers taken from the Ida Reese, which sunk on the way up.

—The water in the Illinois and Upper Mississippi is getting very thin and steamers are much delayed in their movement thereby. The Missouri is getting very low from the Rocky Mountains to its mouth.

—Charles Dyke, engineer on Robert Fulton's first steamer to Albany, died Monday, aged 85 years. Mr. Dyke was also engineer of the first steamer down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers to New Orleans.

—The rates from St. Louis to New Orleans are: Flour 50c, whisky $1,75, pork 75c, onions, potatoes and apples 60c. oil 75c per barrel; heavy pound freights 30c, and hay 40c per hundred pounds.

—Mr. George Robarts, discharging clerk at the wharf boat of the U. S. mail line at Louisville, accompanied by his young bride, came up on the Ben. Franklin, and returned on the United States.

—The Solicitor of the Treasury has decided that canal-boats entering the navigable waters of the United States must be enrolled and licensed.

—The Natchez got aground at Greenleaf bar, above Cairo, and was detained twelve hours.

—The Mollie Mohler has been sold to Capt. James Best, and will hereafter run in the Wisconsin River trade. She is on the way to her future field operations.

—The Richmond when she lays up will be thoroughly overhauled and receive new furniture. The estimated expense for this work is only $40,000.

—The Local Board of Inspectors have revoked the license of Henry Leech, river engineer. Cause—Sleeping on duty and intoxication.

—The Katie is undergoing alterations in her department of machinery, that it is believed will make her the champion of the western waters.

—The Colossal, Clarksville, and Shannon have lost much time in the lower river recently by the "burning" of their boiler.

—The steamer Germ has entered the Marietta and Parkersburg trade.

—Captain John M. Hare, late of the steamer Glendale, is in Louisville on official business.

—The steamer Armada will be sold at auction, on Saturday, August 7.

—Captain John Cannon has gone to Kentucky to see his family.

HOME NEWS.

The Homestead Bank is open on Saturday night.

See advertisement
Headed announcement.

The first of a series of three games for the championship will be played this afternoon at Union Park between the Enterprise and Osceola. The proposed contest has excited considerable enthusiasm in base ball circles. Every accommodation has been provided for spectators.

The Business Guide is out in a brand new suit, and looks exceedingly well. We congratulate neighbor Spence and his corps of able assistants, on this new and gratifying evidence of success. Long may they continue to Guide the business public, so that they may not dispense with printers ink. This is gratis.

For Sale.—We direct attention to the notice in our advertising columns offering a fine residence for sale on Pennsylvania avenue, with two acres of beautiful grounds, laid out with shrubbery, etc. It is offered for sale by Thos. F. Stewart, Real Estate Agent, No. 48 Fifth avenue. This is a rare opportunity for obtaining a good investment.

Y. M. C. A.—A monthly meeting will be held in their rooms, corner Penn and Sixth streets, this (Saturday) evening at 7:45. Besides the usual reports of the Committees and other business of the Association, a report of the recent tour of Burnsil, Sankey and Morrow through the State may be expected from John Morrow. Mr. Wm. Johnson will conduct the music. The public are invited. Seats free to all.

Suit for Slander.—Yesterday an action was brought in the District Court by Otto Hammer and Dora Hammer his wife, against Samuel Shaner and his wife for slander. The allegation is that Mrs. Shaner publicly insinuated that Mrs. Hammer was not the lawful wife of Otto Hammer, which naturally aroused the ire of Mrs. Hammer, and the suit was the result. The parties reside in Allegheny—the plaintiffs being German and the defendants Irish. The Shaners were arrested on a capias and gave $200 bail for court.

The up-town office of the Pittsburgh, Washington and Baltimore Railroad has been given to Max Schamberg, Esq., and is located at 163 Smithfield street. At this office tickets can be had to all local and foreign stations, and travelers are no longer compelled to run to the depot for tickets. This is the only ticket office in the center of the city, and President Hughart, by establishing the same, has done a good act and deserves the thanks of the community for the convenience he gives to travelers on the new road.

As to the appointee, we will say that no wiser selection could have been made. We know Mr. Schamberg personally, and are satisfied that his energy, his large acquaintance and his connections abroad will insure a large business for the company.

Pocket Picked.

Mr. Charles Park, of Bellevernon, a delegate to the G. A. R., Convention, at Erie, had his pocket picked at the Union Depot, yesterday, of $33—all the money he had. He had just purchased tickets for himself and another delegate and then reached to put the change back into his pocket-book when he found it gone. The Treasurer of Post No. 3, in this city provided him with other funds.

A Servant Girl Outraged.

Alderman Bolster, of Allegheny, yesterday took the information of Mary Lieb charging August Jaeckel with committing an outrage on her person. She alleged that she is a servant at a house in the Third ward, at which the accused is a boarder, and that on Thursday night, Jaeckel, being in liquor, entered her room and took up his quarters in her bed, in which she was at the time sleeping, without her knowledge or consent. Also that he effected his dastardly purpose then and there by forcible means. A hearing was had, and the above facts being sufficiently well established, the accused was held in $2,000 for court.

An Alleged Bigamist Jailed.

George Stewart appeared at 'Squire Ammon's office in East Birmingham, and on behalf of Susanna Stewart charged George Lori with bigamy, alleging that on the 25th day of February last, at McKeesport, the defendant was legally married by Justice Berry of that place to Susanna Stewart; and affiant further states that at the time of the communication of said second marriage Lori had a wife in full life in East Birmingham. The certificate of marriage furnished by 'Squire Berry was presented to 'Squire Ammon, and upon it the information was based. A warrant was placed in the hands of an officer, and Lori was arrested. The prisoner was committed to jail in default of $1,500 bail.

Brutal Treatment by a Parent.

As Burgess Saulsbury, of East Birmingham, was returning home from his office on Thursday night, about nine o'clock, he discovered a little girl, apparently not more than nine or ten years of age, lying asleep on the steps of the United Presbyterian church. He aroused her and inquired who she was and what she was doing in such a place, at so unusual an hour. The poor child, with a faltering voice and tears streaming down her cheeks, told him that her name was Gracey, that her mother was in jail and that her father had come home drunk and chased her and her brother out of the house. The great heart of the Justice was moved to pity at her sad story, and he took the child in his arms and carried her to a place where she was comfortably taken care of. Efforts will be made to find her brutal parent in order that he may be made to reap his reward.

Sneak Thieves Arrested.

At an early hour last evening, Officers Wier and Geary of the Allegheny Mayor's police, were walking along Ohio street, when they discovered two suspicious looking individuals coming down Cedar avenue, apparently having something concealed under their coats. The men discovering the officers, but not knowing that they were themselves observed, started to retrace their steps, and disclosed the fact that each had a bundle in his possession. They turned down Second street, and the officers continued on Ohio street at a quick pace, and up Union avenue to the corner of Second street, where they intercepted and arrested the suspicious individuals. The one with the larger bundle had thrown it away, but the smaller bundle was secured, and, when opened at the Mayor's office, revealed a costly dress pattern. When the men were taken to the lock-up, one of them was recognized as William Seville, a noted sneak-thief, and the other gave his name as David King. They will have a hearing to-day.

To Belvidere.

On Thursday evening last the gathering clouds appeared to threaten a storm, but this did not interfere with the arrangements of the members of the Pittsburgh Barge Club for a pull to Belvidere. The "Whisper" got off first, and fearing a storm did not wait for the rest. The Naiad followed with a good crew of "light weights," the "Tub" with the guests coming after. The beautiful barge "Alice" was the last to depart, manned with the best crew that ever yet handled the spruces athwart her rowlocks. Never before did she skim the waters so beautifully, or so speedily. Both the Tub and Naiad waited to see her go, gracefully, by them, although the Fifth avenue banker tugged stoutly while she waited. Twenty-five members were out, and a jolly good time was had. To be sure a little sprinkle of weather dampened the ardor somewhat of the "Tub" crew, who were kept out in the wet; but nothing occurred to mar the happy harmony existing. Messrs. Bush and Horn at the Belvidere did their level best at the supper business.

The German Peace Fund.

The money raised at the German Peace celebration in this city, which was sent to the Central Committee of the Soldiers' Aid Society, has been received and the receipt acknowledged in a letter received on Wednesday by Mr. Guenther Porzel. The following is a translation of the letter:

The Central Committee of the German Society for the care of wounded and sick warriors to the well born Mr. G. Porzel: No. 10,494. We most respectfully notify you that the 1,387 thalers which were sent in your agreeable letter of the 14th of June to Dr. Fr. Kapp, and which was the net income of the Peace festival held in your place on the 1st of May, and which you determined to devote in part to the sick and wounded German soldiers and in part to the invalids and widows and orphans of soldiers of the German army, have been handed over to us by Dr. Kapp to be applied as directed, and the money is now in our treasury for that purpose.

And further, while respectfully acknowledging the arrival of the gift, by the enclosed receipt, we can not fail most heartily to thank you and our dear countrymen collectively for their patriotic free-will offerings, as well as for the therewith evinced sympathy for their former Fatherland. Accept the assurance of our highest esteem, etc., etc.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

A Little Girl Falls into a Kettle of Boiling Water and is Scalded in a Horrible Manner.

About seven o'clock last evening Louisa Zehnder, a little daughter of Charles Zehnder, who resides at No. 199 Spring Garden avenue, Allegheny, met with an accident of a most distressing and terrible character. It appears that Mr. Zehnder, who is a butcher, has a number of kettles, which are used for various purposes, sunken in the back part of his establishment, so that the top of the kettles is on a level with the floor. On last evening the butchers were engaged in scalding some tripe and to assist in the process, these kettles were all filled with boiling water. The child who is but four years old came into the shop unnoticed, and what she wanted is not known, but it seems that for some cause, she moved the lids of one of the kettles and missing her footing she partially fell into the water, scalding her left leg in a horrible manner from foot to thigh. The flesh and skin, it is said, peel off in any quantity, and the child is now lying in terrible agony. Dr. Willard is the attending physician.

TURNER HEARD FROM.

Particulars of His Escape.

District Attorney Swoope has received from his special officer, sent to continue the search for Turner, the escaped forger, a report, from which he has permitted us to take the following facts: Turner jumped from the train midway between the rolling mill below Greenville and Shenango station, at least three-quarters of a mile farther north than the railroad crossing. He lay all the afternoon concealed in a corn-field. About sunset a little girl, daughter of Levi Burd, came in collision with him in her father's field. He called her and appealed to her to help him, promising her his watch if she would get him a file. She called a Mr. Hayes, but he refused to assist him, though he offered him his watch, and told him that he had been arrested for selling whisky, and that if he could get home he would give bail.

From there he took a north west direction, and met one Daniel Knappenberger, to whom he applied for help but was refused. Further on he met Lyons Havnett, who also refused to help him. He went on in the same direction, and since that we have no information.

The little girl states that he was badly bruised, his face and shirt bosom being covered with blood. He cautioned her not to tell any person that she had seen him, and she did not tell her father until late in the evening.

The officer sent by the District Attorney, is evidently on his track, and will no doubt effect his recapture.

THAT was an original way of telling the story. The mother of a girl who resides in Union Borough, brought an infant into a neighbors house and laid it in the arms of the maternal head of the family, merely mentioning the name of that lady's son by way of explanation, after which she departed. The father of that son it endeavoring to have the authorities take the "wee thing" off his hands.

AN Eastern religious paper earnestly requests all good people to pray for a miraculous sign, and further adds: "It is asked for all newspapers desiring the spread of truth and destruction of error, that they publish this request and pray to Almighty power, that on the first three Sunday nights in October, 1871, there shall appear in the heavens a distinct light in the shape of a cross." We have a soft thing on that question, for the fiery cross on St. Paul's can be lighted on the desired evening, without any trouble.

THE large sewer extension, running from Sedgwick avenue, Allegheny, to the railroad track, is intersected just at the railroad by the Nixon street sewer. The immense volume of water coming into this junction from both directions on Thursday evening, caused by the heavy rain-storm, caused the large sewer to burst and the water overflowed the streets and lots about the neighborhood, setting afloat articles of all descriptions, among other things a pig-pen containing four pigs. This was carried some four or five squares, when it came in contact with a lamp-post and was smashed completely, and one of the porkers drowned.

DISAPPEARED.

A Merchant Not Heard from for More than a Fortnight—Anxiety of His Friends.

The friends of Mr. Edward Singleton, a Penn street merchant, have been made very anxious by reason of his unaccountable absence from home and business for nearly three weeks past. Two weeks ago last Monday evening he closed his store, corner Penn and Forty-second streets, about eight o'clock telling his clerk to be on hand early to open it the next morning. He then apparently started for his home on West street, Allegheny. Since then his friends have had no trace of him.

He was a married man, and has a wife and two children. His friends have made inquiries in every direction, but thus far have been unable to gain the slightest information concerning him. No reason for his disappearance can be suggested. His domestic relations were of the most pleasant character, and his financial affairs are known to be in a very healthy condition. He had but recently opened the variety store on Penn street, having formerly been a member of the firm of Leary & Singleton, variety and notion dealers, on Federal street, Allegheny, and his prospects were considered favorable. He is described as being about five feet seven inches in height, pale complexion, and wearing heavy brown whiskers and moustache. He wore a black felt hat, dark gray frock coat, linen vest and dark blue pants. It is feared that he has been made the victim of foul play.

A LIGHTNING STROKE.

A Young Man Killed During the Storm Thursday Night.

Yesterday Coroner West held an inquest on the remains of Charles Miller, who was killed Thursday evening by lightning near Dixmont station, on the Fort Wayne Railroad. It seems that just as the storm commenced he started out from the residence of his employer, Mr. Snyder, to go back some distance into the woods to feed some stock.

The storm was very severe in the neighborhood, and as he did not return, no alarm was felt, as it was supposed he had sought shelter. After it had passed and he still made no appearance, search was instituted, which resulted in the discovery of his dead body lying at the foot of a tree which had been struck with lightning. The body was partially purple when found. It was two hours after the storm before the body was found.

The jury returned a verdict of "struck by lightning." Deceased was a young man about nineteen years of age, and highly esteemed in the community where he was known.

THAT was a peculiar situation for the Rev. Mr. Hays, of the Catholic Church, New Castle, who, so the New Castle Journal, was way-laid on Friday night last on the old Shenandoah Bridge, a pistol pointed, and his money demanded. He happened, however, to have a similar weapon himself, and the case was compromised by his taking charge of his assailant and leading him to the light, when he discovered that it was one of his own flock.

THERE will be a jubilee meeting to-morrow afternoon at the Soho M. E. Mission School. Among the other exercises will be the presentation of a Bible to the leading chorister—the presentation speech to be made by Superintendent Evans, and reply by our editorial friend, Mr. Vannote. The school is about to be removed from its present location to the Oakland School House, and the meeting is intended as a sort of farewell. The occasion promises to be one of great interest.

THE Advocate is responsible for this story: The pulpit of one of our churches up the Monongahela river was recently filled by a local preacher, who is both efficient and fruitful in labors. In the congregation, immediately before the preacher sat Judge D., whose occupation is that of an undertaker. The theme of the speaker was heaven, and, warming up as he went forward, he exclaimed: "Brethren there'll be no night there. The Lord God is the light of the place. There'll be no sin there; there'll be no tears there; there'll be no death and no funerals there; and, best of all, brethren, (his eye resting at the time on Judge D.) there'll be no undertakers there." The Judge has not heard the last of that yet.

POLICE NOTES.

Brief Mention of Criminalities Yesterday.

John Clark's saloon Frankstown road was robbed of six dollars early yesterday morning the thieves gaining access through the back door.

Kate Raney was arrested yesterday for stealing a silver watch and eighteen dollars from John Mansfield. The property was recovered. John refused to prosecute and Kate was released.

Patrick Wall induced Mayor Callow yesterday to send for H. W. Elter who had struck the Wall in the Superior Iron Mill at Woods Run.

C. J. Selleck appeared at the office of Alderman Taylor and preferred a charge of surety of the peace against Jennie Shade, alleging that the accused called the wife of deponent names that were vile and infamous, besides threatening to knock her teeth down her throat. The accommodating Justice issued a warrant for Jane. The parties reside in Penn township.

Before Alderman Taylor, Thomas Hoben charged Patrick Gammon with assault and battery. Patrick thereupon entered a cross suit against Thomas, of a similar character. The parties were held for a hearing.

Andrew Belz, a barber at No. 100 Webster avenue, came before the Mayor and made information charging James Broderick with burglary. It is alleged that last night the accused entered the shop of the deponent, by taking out a pane of glass, and robbed the premises of nine razors, a cup, brush and other articles. The house in which the shop is located is occupied as a tavern. A warrant was issued and the accused was arrested on Water street by officers Moon and Dressler, and locked up for a hearing on Monday morning next.

Alderman Bolster of Allegheny issued a warrant for the arrest of Domenec Zeigler and Conrad Wooster, on a charge of surety of the peace, preferred by Leo Kuntz who alleges they threatened to take her life.

Lawrence Max is wanted at the office of Alderman Butler, Kunigunda Myer having preferred a charge of disorderly conduct against him.

Colors Still Flying.

It is all a mistake to suppose that Liebler has hauled down his colors in the Mayoralty contest. He has no intention of committing such political suicide while the skies are bright above him, the field so inviting before him, and the prospects for success so encouraging. His friends are working like beavers and intend putting him through if it be possible—and it is hard to see why it is not possible. If merit and capabilities for the office are to be taken into consideration at all, Liebler's claims cannot be overlooked. He comes out as an independent candidate, and is resolved to appeal only to the people for support. In the meantime, those who desire to know something further of the people's candidate may obtain the desired knowledge by calling at his mammoth trunk store No. 104 Wood street, where he will be found attending his extensive business. That is his strong point, successful beyond measure in his business, he has developed qualities there which amply evidence his fitness for executive position. Commencing at the foot of the ladder he has worked his way up to be the leading trunk manufacturer of this section and is now the proprietor of a store at No. 104 Wood street, which contains a vast assortment of goods in his line of trade, trunks, valises, travelling satchels, carpet bags, and everything from the smallest reticule to the largest "Saratoga" is there represented. Travellers who wish to procure a trunk that will withstand the baggage smashers should call at Lieblers, and look at his assortment, and all who wish see how an extensive business is managed and also learn something of the peoples candidate for Mayor, should do likewise.

The Case of Mrs. Bryson.

EDITORS GAZETTE: Your report in yesterday's GAZETTE of the case of Mrs. Bryson, the poor woman who died in Virgin alley, does not sufficiently reveal the gross delinquency of the city and county officials, or of the laws which govern such cases—as, after diligent inquiry and being referred from one official to another, I was still unable to ascertain "Who buries the poor?" To my earnest inquiry I was told "the Guardians of the Poor had nothing to do with it." Repeated appeals elicited an order from Mr. Fortune for a coffin. Honor is due to Mr. John Rubery for obtaining this order; his heart was in warm sympathy for the suffering poor; himself a poor, laboring man, lost a day's wages while helping a more needy neighbor. Such men are the noblest of God's creatures. After waiting several hours for a promised wagon to remove the remains, I was called upon to see these gentlemen again, and after waiting several hours in vain I procured a hearse and raised contributions from the benevolent to defray the expense, had the body taken to the church for religious rights, and thence to St. Mary's Cemetery. The questions, Who are the proper authorities in such cases? what are their names? their number and street? remain unanswered.

G. A. R. CONVENTION.

Last Day's Session—Grand Pic-Nic—Speeches and Resolutions.

The last day of the G. A. R. Convention, which was closed in Erie, Thursday, is said to have been the best day of all, as it was wholly devoted to pleasure, the care and wear of business having been laid aside.

The programme was for a grand excursion to Massassaqua Point and a pic-nic. The rain of the evening previous somewhat dampened the ardor of some of the prospective excursionists, but notwithstanding this unfavorable circumstance, the attendance was very large.

At nine o'clock, Post Strong Vincent formed at their headquarters, with Mehl's band in the van, and marched to the Reed House, where they were joined by a large column of delegates to the convention and others who wore the honored blue. The line of march was direct, down State street to the public dock. The Wadsworth was ready for propelling purposes, and as soon as the large crowd was stowed away the fleet moved, for it was a fleet, and no insignificant one at that. Capt. Ottinger, of the Perry, kindly offered a couple of his gigs for the use of his quondam brothers in the service, which were highly enjoyed by persons innumerable. Following these were a yacht or two and a long line of row boats, stretching far down the bay, as the excursion started off. Mehl's band was aboard, and furnished excellent music, to the liking of every one. But the clouds lowered and rain fell in torrents, and for a time there was a blue and uncomfortable party. The rain continued with unusual severity until the point was reached and no one cared to leave the shelter of the canvass for the canopy Nature has provided, for some time, and many desperate exclamations were vented by disappointed and disheartened persons, and the usual jokes were "let off" about the weather clerk. Many suggested returning to the city, but the weather-wise prophesied a clearing and their words were true, for in a short time the clouds moved off and the sun came out warm and bright. The party then broke up, some taking to the woods, which soon were dry, and others to the water, which was a novelty to most of the guests. The stringed instruments were produced by the band, and dancing was in order.

The call for dinner was heartily responded to, and the bountiful feast prepared by the ladies, apparently keenly enjoyed by them to whom the excursion and exercise had given an appetite of exceedingly healthy proportions. After dinner came the speeches, in which Comrade Storey, of Philadelphia, led off Captain Mackey followed with a recitation of "Sheridan's Ride," Comrade Smith sang half a dozen comic songs, Col. Curtis, of Erie, made a speech, and the exercises were closed with the singing of "Sherman's March to the Sea," Comrade Smith leading and the others joining with a will in the chorus.

The ride home was delightful and after touching at the dock to allow those who wished to disembark, the remainder of the party put out again and enjoyed the sight of a beautiful sunset on the lake.

The day was wound up by an informal meeting at which the following expression of thanks to their entertainers was adopted by the visitors.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Grand Army of the Republic is hereby tendered Strong Vincent Post No. 67, of Erie, their lady friends and the citizens generally, for the very kind reception and handsome entertainment given the representatives at the Dept. Encampment, who will ever remember with great pleasure their visit to Pennsylvania's beautiful lake city.

The delegates left Erie yesterday for their homes—our Pittsburgh delegation returning last evening, with the most pleasant recollections of the trip.

REMINISCICAL.

An Old Time Bargain.

PITTSBURGH, July 31, 1871.

DEAR GAZETTE: I have been sojourning for some days at the "Robinson House," on the corner of Seventh street and Duquesne way. This very pleasantly situated house was first named the "Scott House," in honor of Thomas Scott, Esq., who was one of the best and most valuable citizens of Pittsburgh. I hope his good children will do their duty by having published a history of his career, which (truthfully written) will be creditable to his memory. On entering this pleasantly situated and really well managed hotel, some reminiscences of by-gone days crowded on my memory. The second wife of Mr. Scott was and is an excellent, good lady, a daughter of my old friend, James Adams. The recollection of the old sincere friendship entertained for the O'Hara, Adams and Scott families, induces me to write the following regarding an early sale of the piece of ground on which the "Scott," now "Robinson House," is situated. I am under the impression that a part of said ground was given or cheaply sold to my friend Scott by my old friend James Adams.

About A. D. 1808, Col. James O'Hara was owner of a large amount in value of real estate in and near the Borough of Pittsburgh and elsewhere. He was then also an extensive merchant and was also the proprietor of an extensive Glass manufacturing establishment. James Adams was then a prominent merchant and commanded high consideration. Adams conceived the idea, that the lot of ground on the bank of the Allegheny, bounded by what is now called Seventh street, (Sixth was then the outer street of the borough) Barkers alley and Penn street, was likely to improve in value. Adams called on O'Hara, to ask him the lowest price and best terms he would sell said lot for.

The two were intimate and friendly. O'Harra was the senior, and was a liberal, generous and kind-hearted man as well as far-seeing. Adams was a younger merchant and an excellent man, but was anxious to make a good bargain with his friend O'Hara, who owned much property and could afford to sell cheap.

Adams called on Colonel O'Hara to know the lowest price and longest time on which he would sell said lot. O'Hara said: "Jimmie, I will give you a good bargain. I will sell you that lot cheap. You may have it for fifteen hundred dollars and whatever time you want for the payment." Adams says: "Colonel, I will take it at thirteen hundred dollars." O'Hara said: "No; I won't sell it for less than fifteen hundred dollars, and I tell you Jimmie if you want to buy that lot you had better take it now." Adams was determined to purchase it, but hoped he could induce the Colonel to take some less. In a few days he called and told the Colonel he would take that lot at fourteen hundred dollars. O'Hara said "No, I won't take that." Adams said "Well Colonel, I will take it at fifteen hundred." The Colonel said "Jimmie I told you I would give you a good bargain, and I advised you to take it then, and now I offer you a good bargain and advise you to take it. You may have that lot for two thousand dollars, and make the payments to suit your convenience." (Credit was then an important consideration with nearly every purchaser). Adams was determined to purchase the lot and tried to induce the Colonel to "split the difference" or come down a little, but could not effect it. Adams conceived the idea that the Colonel had taken an extra glass of wine, which may have tended to induce him to raise the price, therefore he left, hoping to find the Colonel disposed to sell cheaper in a few days.

Adams made another call, determined (if compelled) to close at the two thousand dollars. Adams said to the Colonel: "I come now to close a bargain with you for that lot, and I leave it to your generosity to say how much less than two thousand dollars I shall pay for it." O'Hara said: "Jimmie, I offered you that lot for a great deal less than it was worth, both times, and now I say to you that you may have it at less than it is worth, and I offer it to you for twenty-five hundred dollars. Now I must have two hundred and fifty dollars cash payment, and you may take your time for the balance. This offer you have until to-morrow, and no longer. Adams in a few hours went with the $250, and closed the bargain.

That lot is occupied by a splendid church, a very extensive brewery, and many other structures, besides the very popular Robinson Hotel. The same lot, I am assured by intelligent gentlemen here, would readily sell, with all the improvements swept off, for one million of dollars.

One very intelligent gentleman assured me that he believed that he could very readily raise a company to purchase the said lot at the price of one million of dollars, if the improvements were all off, and he believed it would be a good speculation. M.

POLITICAL.

Captain B. W. Morgan.

MESSRS. EDITORS—Presuming that you, in the present campaign, adhere to your time-honored custom of giving all worthy candidates a fair show before the people whose nominations they ask, I make bold to address you in favor of Captain Ben W. Morgan. Perhaps no gentleman in the community is better known; certainly, none have been more closely identified with the public affairs of the city during the past decade of years. I have myself been in Councils, and speak by the book, when I assert that Captain Morgan has been always ranged on the side of honesty in his acts and votes. His failing, if failing it be, has been that he is too outspoken in his condemnation of what he thinks or knows to be a wrong. With good record and unimpeachable name and character, Captain Morgan can well go before the people and ask their support for any office within their gift.

NO POLITICIAN.

The Drs. Oldshue.

These gentlemen have their office at 132 Grant street, this city. Their system is known as the Urino-Pathological system. In other words, they study disease by a faithful, careful and scientific examination of the urine, and prescribe remedies according to the result of their diagnosis. This, we know, is not so popular a method of practice as some, still it is by no means a new one. Some of the most intelligent and learned physicians the world has ever known have been Urino-Pathists.

The Drs. Oldshue are scientific men, and have demonstrated themselves over and over again to be masters of their profession, in the healing of hundreds of the worst ailments to which flese is heir. No man can be with them an hour and not feel that they have thoroughly and successfully studied the healing art, on its scientific and practical sides. Then, they are men who love their profession and do not follow it simply to make money, but to do good and bless mankind. The method of treatment they adopt is one, too, that puts the patient to the least possible trouble. They ask only to see a few ounces of his urine and know his age, and they will tell and do the rest. And they are most honorable men. And we take pleasure in commending such competent and high-minded professional gentlemen.

Hymenial and Otherwise.

If you contemplate a new departure in a hymenial way, call at Hespenheide's, No. 50 Sixth street, and leave an order for the wedding garments. Or if you are not connubially inclined, and desire to appear at all times neatly dressed—not foppishly or flashily, but as a gentleman—let Hespenheide fit you out, and so far as outward appearance can make a man, you will be all right. Hespenheide is ready to respond to all your wants in his line with promptness and in a manner which cannot fail to please. So say all who have heretofore patronized the establishment, and such general commendation is certainly the best guarantee needed. No. 50 Sixth street is his number.

A Card to the Public.

You are respectfully invited to call at Stevenson & Cartwright tin and stove emporium, 158 Federal street, Allegheny, to see something wonderful in the art of washing. A wash boiler is in operation that will wash clothes in thirty minutes beautifully white and clean without a particle of rubbing. It really does away with all the hard labor of washing. Come and see the little wonder in operation. You will be astonished at its work. I challenge any apparatus in the country to equal Robb's Autamatic Wash Boiler.

THE GUN AND ROD.

Excursion to the Black Fork of Cheat River.

MESSRS. EDITORS: A company of citizens of the Fourteenth ward, having heard that the region on the headwaters of Cheat river afforded a fine field for sport and recreation, resolved to make it a visit.

The company consisted of Samuel H. Baird, Wm. Holmes, A. D. McKee, Col. D. B. Morris, Prof. J. P. Andrews, J. R. Wightman, Rev. D. T. Carnahan and Wm. Watson (colored). The party was organized by electing Col. Morris commander, S. H. Baird treasurer and paymaster, D. T. Carnahan chaplain, and Wm. Watson cook. A large wall-tent and two fly-tents were provided, and an ample supply of provisions laid in to meet any contingency that might arise in the course of a ten days' or two weeks' sojourn in a wildernes. Through the kindness of President Hugnart, of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, we were favored with excursion rates over both his own road and the Baltimore and Ohio road. Leaving the city on the morning of the 17th inst., we found ourselves in company with President Hughart himself, who very kindly and thoughtfully invited us to seats in his private car, from the rear end of which, we had the finest opportunity of seeing all that could be seen in such rapid traveling of the character of the road, and the beautiful scenery through which we passed. We owe a debt of gratitude to the gentlemanly President, for the superior accommodations afforded us, and for his attentions in pointing out objects of interest on the way.

The Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, is well constructed, and a great public benefit. Over thirty miles an hour cannot be accomplished on an inferior track with safety and comfort. This, our train accomplished without its being realised.

The scenery from here to Cumberland, and especially among the mountains, is very fine; and should be seen by all who love the beautiful and grand in nature.

Arriving at Cumberland, not a little interest was awakened among the habitues of the depot, and the youths, and perambulators generally, by the number of our party, and the peculiarity and amount of our baggage. In a notice of our arrival, the Cumberland Daily News said the next morning: "If they get to the headquarters of the Cheat River, where they intend camping for ten days or two weeks, to engage in trout fishing and hunting the wild game with which that region of country abounds, with all their luggage and traps, they are not likely to want for anything, should their stay be even lengthened till fall. We judge there was half a car load of camping equipments, victuals, blankets, guns, fishing tackle, &c., &c. We wish the party perfect success. The Cheat River country, for which this party is bound, lies about thirty miles southwest of Oakland, in Tucker county, West Virginia. The region is wild and uninhabitable, and is seldom trod by the foot of man, unless by hunters and trout-fishers. A friend, in speaking of this country recently, said, "that in the year 1863 he had passed through the land of Canaan," going from Oakland to Pendleton county, West Virginia, and that at a point about eighteen miles from Oakland, for a distance of over fifty miles, he did not pass a single habitation, and yet a large portion of this region is called the "The land of Canaan." (Goodness, gracious! the last place in the world to find a wife.")

Taking the first train west on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, we reached Oakland in fifty-four miles. Here we spent the first night. It is a fine Summer resort, similar to Cresson on the Penna. Railroad, and is much frequented by Baltimoreans, and Wheelingers etc. It is 2,700 feet above tide water, and has fine hotel accommodations; the principal house being the "Glades Hotel," kept by John Dailey, Esq.

In the morning we secured the services of the brothers Martin, who, with two teams,—a two horse ambulance for riding in, and a two horse wagon for baggage, conveyed us fifteen miles southward over a road, the greater part of which was as smooth and level as any we ever rode over. After proceeding ten miles we ascended a mountain from the summit of which was spread out a most glorious panorama.

At William H. Kitzmiller's, fifteen miles from Oakland, we spent our second night. Before leaving Oakland we learned that there was a vacant house on the Black Fork of Cheat provided with tables, chairs and cooking utensils, and we left our tents and unnecessary articles at that place.

At Kitzmiller's the wagon road ended. The provision was packed in sacks on the horses, and the whole party started on a tramp of fifteen miles, having Mr. Kitzmiller for our guide. The path was hard to travel, being obstructed by fallen trees, some of them four feet in diameter, and running through swamps, over bare tree-roots and stony places. The travellers keeping their eyes upon the path, and looking out and up into the dense forest in search of game, were cheered by the hope of finding something to shoot at. But though we saw an occasional bear track and deer track, not an animal except a single squirrel appeared to our anxious vision in all that fifteen miles tramp. It was a matter of surprise to all that the distance was accomplished with so little fatigue; only one of the party showing signs of giving out, and he, because of the 180 pounds of humanity he had to carry. Arriving at our destination, we found a large two storied log house, 63 feet long by 20 feet wide and a kitchen 20x20 feet, welcoming us to its hospitable shelter. It was built fourteen years ago by Hon. G. W. Dobbin, of Baltimore, on the summit of a hill overlooking the junction of the North Fork with the Black Fork of Cheat river, and commands a most beautiful prospect down the river. It contains eight rooms, including kitchen, each twenty feet square. It is twelve miles from the nearest dwelling, and is thirty-five hundred feet above tide water. A singlar man named Henry Wild, a misanthropist, made this his home for two years, sleeping in a sitting posture at night in a large wooden cistern, which he built for the purpose. Watson took charge of the premises as housekeeper and cook, and won for himself and his posterity imperishable renown by the manner in which he conducted the establishment. The first day's fishing in the Blackwater was not as successful as desired; nor the second in the North Fork: the first three miles, and the second one and a half miles from the house. The third day's fishing was everything that could be desired. There is no doubt that those streams are swarming with trout; and when circumstances are favorable, and the fish are inclined to bite, immense numbers can be caught. On the North Fork there are thirteen falls in a few miles, one of which is thirty feet high. On the Blackwater, about two miles from the house, there is a fall sixty-three feet high. In the region of these falls, the scenery is peculiarly grand, and repays for all the trouble of reaching them. The timber having been cleared off from about sixty acres around the house, blackberry bushes have sprung up, which furnished us most luscious fruit which Watson presented to us at meals prepared in four different ways.

After enjoying ourselves hugely for several days, we prepared to return. Not expecting to find any game, we had ordered horses for all the company. And each one, with a diminished pack, mounted a well-broken and trusty steed, and proceeded on the trail in regular caravan style. It required considerable skill to keep mounted, and avoid being torn to pieces by the limbs and trunks of trees and bushes through which we had to pass. In this business Mr. McK. was expert and won the championship of equestrianism of the company. It seemed as if he had been born and raised in the saddle—a centaur.

Our Chaplain conducted family worship in our temporary home, and preached on the Sabbath; the horn being used instead of a bell to collect the congregation. Messrs. B. and W. rendered excellent services as choristers. It is worthy of remark that on our return, a rabbit sat on the roadside, about twenty-five yards from one of the hunters, with the utmost composure until two shots had been fired at him, and then moved leisurely away, disgusted, perhaps, at the waste of so much ammunition.

Any persons desiring a competent and reliable guide in that region may address Mr. William H. Kitzmiller, Oakland, Alleghany County, Maryland; and for conveyances may address, Messrs. Joseph & John Martin, same place. C.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—An immense and very fashionable audience assembled last night to greet the famous Hart, Ryman & Barney's Minstrels. Indeed, we were more than pleased at the ovation awarded these truly finished artists, for seldom has our city been visited by a troupe so worthy in every respect of encouragement and support. Each of the many gentlemen embraced in the company is a host in the amusement line within himself, and all present a rare and unequaled combination of true worth, talent and ability. Johnny Hart perhaps deserves as much favor at the hands of our amusement lovers as any minstrel in the land, for he labored long to entertain our people in our home theatre comique. This afternoon a matinee will be held, and to-night the company will make their farewell bow for the season in this city.

TRIMBLE'S VARIETIES.—The Female Minstrels continue to draw crowded houses. The attractions presented by Manager Trimble are of the highest order. A splendid bill to-night and a fashionable Matinee this afternoon. Let all who enjoy fun put in an appearance.

Gross Imposition.

No imposition is more to be condemned than that of "short weight." So common is this, that hardly an article of commerce is offered to the public, which has the full weight represented. Such is not the case with DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, now universally used in this country. Each package contains with scrupulous exactness the full quantity or weight labeled upon it, and will produce better and greater results than any other Baking Powder in market. Try it and satisfy yourselves of the truth of our assertion. For sale by Grocers. T:TH:S

The market to-day was very dull indeed, especially on the Lower Road where transactions were limited to the purchasing of a few small lots at about yesterday's prices, regardless bringing only $4.70. On the Upper Road the question of gravity and what constitutes merchantable oil is attracting considerable attention. Some of A. T. Co.'s orders having been refused, one lot was offered at auction under the rule and but one bid obtained and it was sold at $4.35. The market closed dull and drooping.

The Beaver Argus says: No one who has not given the matter some attention has any idea of what the wool clip in Beaver county amounts to annually. During the present season there have been some ten or twelve wool buyers in the county. These have bought up the most of the wool produced here, but not near all of it. There is a fair amount of it still in the hands of the growers. Leaving the latter out of the account entirely, and throwing together only the known purchases of some of the buyers and the reported purchases of the others, we think we are a little short of the mark when we say the wool already sold in this county during this year will foot up $200,000. It is true the number of pounds produced this year will not compare favorably with the productions of previous years, yet the present enhanced value of the commodity will make the receipts from this source nearly, if not altogether, equal to the receipts of any former season for several years back. The averaged price paid per pound was about 55 cents; the highest 60 cents. Taking the quality of our soil into consideration, and our limited number of acres, Beaver county has no cause to be ashamed of her efforts at wool-growing.

Its convenience to the Union Depot and being immediately opposite the head of Smithfield street, makes it still more desirable, as it can be seen from the extreme lower end of Smithfield street making it unusually prominent for a business house. There also seems to be no doubt now but the Union Depot will be moved down to the corner of Smithfield and Liberty, and if so it will still increase its value.
